

O'Brien Re-Enacts Film Role On 'Radio Theatre' Monday

Pat O'Brien will play the leading role in the Radio Theatre's dramatization of the exciting murder mystery, "Crackup," at 9 p. m. Monday over CBS.

"Crackup" is the thrilling story of the adventures of George Steele, an art lecturer on the staff of a Manhattan museum. The plot revolves around his efforts to prove himself innocent of murder. Taken from a train by two men, he is hit over the head, driven away, and left unconscious by the side of the road. When he regains consciousness, he believes that he has been in a train wreck.

When Joan Davis finds an unredempted pawn ticket, then redeems it in order to satisfy her curiosity, things begin to happen around the famous Davis Tea Room at 8:30 p. m. over CBS.

Guest star Lesley Woods will play a girl who must decide if she's alive or dead in "The Open Grave" at 8 p. m. over CBS. Marco Branston writes a letter to her uncle to explain why the murdered body of her husband is found next to the open grave where she was supposedly buried five years before. Then she disappears.

Fannie Brice will continue her famous radio portrayal of Baby Snooks when she appears in the Screen Guild Players' production of "Pinocchio" at 10 p. m. over CBS. Ahy assisted by her radio "daddy," Hanley Stafford, Miss Brice will listen to him tell her the story in his own amazement.

"The Payoff," a melodrama of murder, mystery and hanky-panky in high political quarters will be the story from "The Casebook of Gregory Hood" at 8:30 p. m. over MBS.

Brothers Meet For First Time In 44 Years

WATERLOO, Ia., Dec. 30—(AP)—Two brothers, one of whom had once been declared legally dead, met this Christmas week at Ottumwa, Ia., for the first time since 1902.

Marion E. Wallace, 51, and George H. Wallace, separated in Minnesota 44 years ago, Marion finally making his home at Alliance, Neb., and George in Waterloo.

George in later years tried to locate his brother but gave up the search after 1921 when a Davisco court in Iowa notified him that his younger brother had been declared legally dead. The declaration was in connection with the settlement of a family estate, and made when the court was unable to locate Marion.

However, Marion was very much alive and started a search for his brother just before Christmas. He located George's son, Lloyd at Ottumwa. George was notified and he quickly left for Ottumwa where they were reunited.

FIRE ENDANGERS HOTEL
NEW YORK, Dec. 30—A fire in the Hotel McAlpin attracted thousands in midtown Manhattan streets today but injured no one and caused only slight damage.

Fire department officials said the blaze, of undetermined origin, started amid stacked-up tables in the unused "Wintergarden" room on the 24th floor. It was quickly extinguished.

A tiny amount of pigment in a hen's feed can result in eggs with red or green yolks.
