monotonous hours. Orientation movies to aid the travelers to Japan, China, Korea, or the Philippines; and entertainment for movie fans. It is not the first time an airline has experimented with air-borne cinemas, but NWA said it was planning to be the first line to use them on trans-ocean hops. The main problem is whether the public will take to movies over the broad expanse of water. They reasoned that on domestic flights, the passenger spends much of his time gazing on terrain below.

But officials doubted that the the public will take to movies
