

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:00 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Arthur Rubloff, who will discuss building plans for N. Michigan av.
- 1:25—WJJD—Baseball: Sox vs. Philadelphia Athletics.
- 1:45—WIND—Baseball: Cubs vs. Philadelphia Phillies.
- 5:15—WMAQ—World Council of Churches. Speakers: Henry Smith Loper and the Very Rev. James J. Cockburn.
- 8:45—WGNB—World of Tomorrow: Talk on zoos of tomorrow.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 6:15 p. m.—W-G-N—Telephone Quiz. The answer is "Cynethine."
- 7:00—WMAQ—Milton Berle, with Dick Farney and Mary Shippe.
- 7:30—WBBM—Mel Blanc program involves another humorous episode.
- 8:00—WMAQ—Amos 'n' Andy show, with the Delta Rhythm Boys.
- 8:15—W-G-N—Stories from Real Life: "Desperate Promise."
- 8:30—WMAQ—Fibber McGee and Molly, with Bill Thompson.
- 9:00—WMAQ—Bob Hope entertains Frank Sinatra and Jeanne McKeon.
- 9:30—WMAQ—Red Skelton, with Verna Felton and Anita Ellis.
- 10:30—WMAQ—Grand Marquee offers "The First Hundred Years."

MUSIC

- 10:00 a. m.—WMAQ—Fred Waring presents tunes from Northwestern university's Wan-Mu show, with Jane Wilson as soloist.
- 7:30 p. m.—WLS, WENR—Boston Pops orchestra, with Arthur Fiedler conducting.
- 8:30—W-G-N—Chicago Philharmonic orchestra, directed by Henry Weber, presents world premiere of Earl Hoffman's "State Street Symphony"; program also includes Prelude and Fugue in D minor from Handel's Concerto Grosso No. 5, Adagio for Strings from Barber's String Quartet in B minor, and Strauss' "Don Juan."
- 10:00—WMAQ—Supper Club, with Jo Stafford and Martin Block.