Mrs. Duschack Files Suit for $15,000

Mrs. Virginia Duschack, 23-year-old widowed mother from Sun Prairie, today filed suit in circuit court asking $15,000 damages from the Durfee Bros. Roofing Co., 1904 S. Park st., one of its truck drivers, and its insurers, for the traffic accident death of her husband last Dec 16.

Mrs. Duschack's husband, Eugene, was killed on Highway 151, about 10 miles southwest of Columbus, where his farm tractor was struck by the roofing company's truck. Mr. Duschack was pulling a car, owned by A. J. Frederick, Columbus, out of a ditch when the accident happened. The Durfee truck driver was Clinton J. Mallon, Beaver Dam, and the company's insurers are The Travelers.

Mrs. Duschack asked the damages for loss of her husband's companionship and for the support he would have furnished for her and their daughter, Mary Ann, who was born six days after his death.

Farm Loan Agency Opens Office Here

The Farmer's Home Administration, a supervised loan agency operating under the United States department of agriculture, has opened offices in the Schenk bldg., 2028 Atwood ave. The headquarters was formerly located in Madison but in 1935 a regional office for Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota was established in Milwaukee and the offices here were closed.

Now the work of the administration has been set up on a state basis.

T. C. Schmidt, a native of Waukesha, is state director.

Displaced Person Broadcast Saturday

Needed legislation for admitting displaced persons in German camps into the United States will be emphasized over WIBA at 4 p. m. Saturday in a radio interview conducted by the Madison committee on displaced persons.

Curtis Johnson, former representative for the Wisconsin area of the national committee on displaced persons, will be questioned by Clara Leiser who has replaced Johnson.

Police Check on Car Left in Franklin Field

Police today were investigating a black sedan which was found abandoned in Franklin field, South Madison playground and parking lot. A bank receipt from Portland, Ore., and a pair of small-sized red bobby socks were found in the car. The socks have no connection with the missing Georgia Jean Weckler, Jefferson county farm girl, police said.
