Only One Opposes Segregation Plan

Wednesday at a legislative fi-nance committee hearing on the controversial highway segregation

The committee heard several tures from the segregated fund. Under the amendment, all highway fund receipts in excess of specific allotments will be divided on a 60-40 basis—60 per cent to counties, towns, villages, and cities as an additional aid for local roads and streets and 40 per cent to the state trunk highway system. The bill also provides for adding 1,000 miles to the state trunk highway system.

for adding 1,000 miles to the state trunk highway system.

The only opponent was F. N. MacMillin of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities. MacMillin persented figures showing that 44 per cent of the total motor vehicle traffic in the state is over city and village streets. Under present allocations, he said, 13 per cent of highway revenues is given to cities and villages. If the amendment is adopted, he receive only 9 per cent of high-
