

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:00 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker, with Rose Oller Harbaugh discussing "Authors I Have Known."
- 12:30 p. m.—W-G-N, WMAQ, WHHM, WCFL, WLS—President Truman's Fourth of July address from Monticello.
- 1:25—WIND—Double header: Cubs vs. St. Louis. Telecast on WHKB.
- 1:45—WJJD—White Sox vs. St. Louis Browns.
- 3:30—W-G-N—Landmarks in American History, from Independence Hall and other American shrines. Speaker: Paul H. Griffith, American Legion commander.
- 5:15—WMAQ—Gen. Eisenhower speaking from Vicksburg, Miss.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 11:45 a. m.—W-G-N—Who Is It? [No studio audience today.]
- 2:00 p. m.—W-G-N—Meet the Stars. Guest: Eric Mattson.
- 6:15—W-G-N—Telephone Quiz. The answer is Booth Tarkington.
- 7:00—WLS—The Fat Man: "Stumped for Murder."
- 7:30—W-G-N—Leave It to the Chis. Guest: Lawrence Spivak.
- 7:30—WHHM—The Little Show, with Robert Q. Lewis.
- 8:00—WMAQ—Famous Radio Players: "Special Delivery."
- 8:30—W-G-N—Murder at Midnight: "A Week Ago Wednesday."
- 9:00—WMAQ—Mystery Theater: "Challenge to Listeners."
- 9:30—WMAQ—Sportsreel, with Bill Stern. Guest, George Jessel.

MUSIC

- 7:00 p. m.—W-G-N—Hurl Ives sings American World War II. songs.
- 7:00—WGNH—Symphony Hour: Handel's Concerto Grosso No. 5 in D major.
- 7:00—WMAQ—Highways in Melody, with Mae Morgan and Paul Lavalle.
- 8:00—WGNH—Grant Park concert, with Nicolai Malko, conductor, and Carol Hrice, contralto.
- 9:15—WIND—Symphonic Hour: Classical recordings.
- 10:00—WMAQ—Supper Club, with Tex Hencke's band.