Heavy Lake Traffic

But Only 18 Dunked

Despite heavy traffic on Lakes Mendeta and Monona during the long July 4 week-end, University of Wisconsin lifeguards reported today only 18 persons were dunked with the capsizing of four sailboats and three canoes. No tipovers or calls for the police rescue boat on Lake

Monona were reported. On Mendota, besides rescuing the 18 "sailors," the univer-sity life guards towed in two sailboats which were be-bs at 2.25. Needles: no sales.

Wyocena Phone Rate Boost Authorized

The Pacific and Wyocena Cooperative Telephone co, has been authorized to increase its rates effective immediately, the Wis-consin Public Service Commisconsin Public Service Commission (PSC) amounced today.

In July, 1946, the firm raised its rates 25 cents per month per customer, but still lost money, the USC said. Recently it asked for the customer but still contained in the customer. an additional raise of 50 cents per customer. The PSC granted a 25-cent increase.

committee announced Saturday. The committee also set a bonus works the entire season. This year's harvest is expected to reach approximately 25,000,000 pounds with early estimates indi-cating a need for 9,000 workers. It is estimated that approxi-mately 5,000 Midwest pickers will have to be recruited for the harvest since Jamaican labor will not be used this year. The state labor relations office said 3,500 Mexican nationals and Texas-Mexican immigrants already have been obtained for the season.

Keep Boats Away From City Beaches, Piers, Police Warn

Police issued a stern warning KEY CASE with attached change purse today to all lake enthusiasts to lost on east side near Schenk's Corners. Monday A. M. Reward. B 7000, Ext. 324.

keep their bonts away from the city's swimming beaches and piers.

City ordinances provide that motor-driven boats must not be propelled within 1,000 feet of a swimming beach. Buoys mark the 1,000-foot distance at all beaches and anyone found in violation will be arrested, Police Lieut. H. Austin White warned.

White reported he saw a boat Sunday speed hazardously close to the University of Wisconsin Oversexa vectors in single, are 21-25. Sunday speed hazardously close to the University of Wisconsin swimming area on Lake Mendota, just off Langdon st. Because the university boat was on rescue work at the time, the speedster could not be apprehended. White stressed the danger of such boat-Mr. Lincoin WMAQ

Saturday night at Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn memorial park.

The marriage is the first for Miss Mayo, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., and the second for O'Shea, divorced recently by Mrs. Grace W. O'Shea in Connecticut.

Spirits of '47 Outdo Famed Brand of '76

The Fourth of July weekend in Madison was "wet."

At least it was according to police court records today.

Nineteen men were arrested during the weekend on charges of drunkenness. Two of there went to court this morning and received suspended sentences, while the other 17 stayed away and forfeited $10 bail each.
