Engelbert Takes Syracuse U. Post

ERNEST A. ENGELBERT

Ernest A. Engelbert, assistant professor of political science in the extension division of the University of Wisconsin, will become associated Aug. 1 with Syracuse (N. Y.) university, where he will teach in the Maxwell Graduate School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, with rank of assistant professor. He will be attached to the department of political science, with special responsibilities for the graduate training program in public administration. The Maxwell graduate school is presently directed by Dr. Paul Appleby, formerly undersecretary of agriculture and assistant secretary of the budget at Washington. Since his return from the service two years ago, Prof. Engelbert, whose home is at Hollandale, Iowa, county, has been associated with the university extension division as lecturer in political science, filling appointments for community groups in many parts of the state.

A WISE MAN ONCE SAID

"The world admires those who do best what many do well." This thought is the keynote of the Johnson Funeral Home service of attaining the ideal of perfection not only in the larger measures, but in the minute details. And in this, price can play no part, for such perfection is available to each and every family, no matter how modest each family's income.

South Side's Annual Frolic Begins Tuesday

The annual South Side Frolic, sponsored by the South Side Men's club, will be resumed this year for the first time since 1942 with a six-day run, Tuesday through Sunday, on the Richmond property in the 500 block of W. Olin ave., it was announced Saturday by W. C. Holtz, general chairman of this year's event.

The frolic will be open from 8 p. m. till midnight all six days, Holtz announced, with matinees on Saturday and Sunday. The Saturday matinee will be special for children with all rides at half price, Holtz said. Eight annual frolics were held up to 1942 when the war caused the event to be discontinued until this year.

Among the features of the frolic

Sun Prairie Sailor at Tsingtao, China

SUN PRAIRIE Franklin J. Gallagher, seaman, first class, USN, son of Amos Gallagher, Sun
