

Notes from Bill Doudna

AT THE UNION: Four Madison actors will have roles in "Swan Song," the psychological drama which Wisconsin Players will present at 8 p. m. Wednesday through Saturday in the Wisconsin Union theater.

One of the leading parts will be played by Francesca Schumacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schumacher, 2350 Sherman ave., who at 13 is a widely known pianist. In "Swan Song," she will appear as one of two prodigies around whom the plot revolves. Yaron Nathanson, New York City, will be cast as the second young musician — an envious neurotic who tries first to crush the girl's fingers, then to poison her.

Other Madison residents in the cast are Joseph Bloodgood, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Francis J. Bloodgood; Michael Zaccone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Zaccane, and Carla Schumacher Brown, Francesca's sister.

The remainder of the company consists of Lindsay Firth, Rector, Pa.; Ben Hammer, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Edward Hunt, Eagle River; Sally Joy Krueger, Gramercy Park, N. Y.; Taysir Farouka, Jaffa, Palestine; Kathleen Gindick, Lake Villa, Ill.; Mary Lynn Kimmel, New York City; Paul Beck, Canal Zone; Ronald Gee, Delavan; and Malcolm Lieblich and Leslie Faber, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Fredrick A. Buerki, who has produced some of the Players' outstanding shows, is directing "Swan Song." This will be the first time an amateur group has presented the Ben Hecht-Charles MacArthur play.

BAND CONCERT: Leroy Klose, music director in the Madison public schools, will conduct a 40-piece band in a concert at 3 p. m. today in Vilas park. Robert Woollen, director of instrumental music at East high school, will be clarinet soloist.

The program will be the third in a series of seven presented by Madison local 166 of the AFL American Federation of Musicians, the Madison park board, and the Madison Vocational school.

Band: "Il Guarany" overture, Gomez; "Oklahoma!" selections, Rodgers. Woolen: "Concertino for Clarinet," Weber.

Band: "Voices of Spring," Strauss; "Caribbean Fantasy," Morrice; "El Caballero," Olivarotti; "Amparito Roca," Tejedor.

ORCHESTRA CONCERT: The University of Wisconsin Summer Symphony orchestra will give a concert at 8 p. m. next Sunday in the Wisconsin Union theater. Prof. Richard C. Church will conduct the organization and Lee Holby, music school secretary, will be piano soloist, playing Liszt's "Spanish Rhapsody." Admission will be free to students and other Wisconsin Union members; the public will be admitted for a small charge.

PROM: Station WHA will go on the air at midnight Friday for a half-hour broadcast from the University of Wisconsin Summer Prom. Donald J. Ruchman, Chicago sophomore, will describe the event. The program also will include music by Art Kassel's orchestra and comment from the Prom Queen.

SUMMER SHOW: An original "dancical" called "If There Isn't..." will be presented at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 13, in the Wisconsin Union theater. The comedy was devised by Shirley Genter, of the University of Wisconsin dance faculty, and Michael Braude, Chicago poet, with music by Mrs. Genter, Shirley Dodge, formerly of Madison and now on the University of Texas faculty, directs the dances.

Members of three campus organizations and one civic group will unite their talents for the production. They are the university's summer dance group, Wisconsin Players, the Madison Theater guild, and the University chorus.

ART EXHIBIT: An oil painting by William A. McCloy, assistant professor of art education at the University of Wisconsin, will be among the works shown in an exhibit from states which made up the Northwest territory. McCloy's "Spirit of Self Sacrifice" was one of 133 works chosen from a total of 600 entries. The show will be held Aug. 8 to 17 at the Illinois State fair, Springfield.

RECITAL: A group of Alexius Baas' voice pupils will give a recital at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the Wisconsin School of Music. Participants will be Carol Hornel, Rodney Lange, Thomas Clark, Kenneth Ziska, S. W. Joe, Ruth Harman Cope, David Milward, and Charlene Moore.

PICNICS: Two picnics for music groups are on the books this week. A picnic for faculty members, students, and alumni of the University of Wisconsin music school and their families — will be held from 4:30 to 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Buttrick park shelter house. Activities will include election by the alumni

Pianist Has Leading Role in 'Swan Song'

FRANCESCA SCHUMACHER

Francesca Schumacher, 13-year-old Madison pianist, will have one of the leading roles in "Swan Song" at the Wisconsin Union theater this week. The part permits her to play several times during the action.
