NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 —(U.P.)— Stocks declined this morning as Wall Street watched developments in the Ford Motor Co. labor dispute and the efforts of the British government to avert a new economic crisis.

With a strike threatened at the Ford plants tomorrow, the motor shares listed on the "big board" dropped a point or more in Chrysler, General Motors and Studebaker.

The prospect of a halt in production at Ford and the possibility of sympathy unrest in other auto plants, with a resultant drop in current output, brought selling into steel shares, where Bethlehem and U. S. Steel each lost more than a point.

Elsewhere there were losses of a point or more in Norfolk & Western, Southern Railway, Allied Chemical, Coca-Cola, Cerro de Pasco and Amerada Corp.
