

Notes from Bill Doudna

BAND CONCERT: Forty musicians from the AFL Madison Musicians assn. will give the last of their series of seven band concerts at 3 p. m. today in Vilas park. Robert Woolen, director of instrumental music at East high school, will be conductor. The programs are co-sponsored by the association, the Madison park board, and the vocational school, with the recording and transcription fund of the American Federation of Musicians paying the salaries.

Today's program: "The Liberty Bell," Sousa; "Light Cavalry" overture, von Suppe; "Polka" from "The Bartered Bride," Smetana; "Finlandia," Sibelius; "American Waltz," DeRose; "The Vanished Army," Alford; "American Salute," Gould; "The Bells of St. Mary's," Adams; "The Donkey Serenade," Friml-Stothart; "Col. Bogey," Alford; "Victor Herbert Favorites," Herbert; "Song of the Flame," Gerswhin-Stothart; "La Sorella," Gallini; "Latin-American Fantasy," Lilly-Isaac; "I Got Rhythm," Gerswhin; "Giannina Mia," Friml; "A String of Pearls," Gray; "U. S. Army March," D'Arcy.

ORGAN MUSIC: While regular organists vacation, guests will play the weekly organ recitals at Luther Memorial and First Methodist churches. Today's programs: Luther Memorial at 10:30 a. m.—Larry Kellihier, organist. "Carillon," Dubois; "Andante," Harwood; "Prelude and Fugue in E Minor," Bach.

First Methodist at 8 and 10:45 a. m.—Marjorie Gregory Nelson, organist, "Meditation," Bubeck; "Psalm Paraphrase, No. 1," Howells; "Rhosymedre," Williams; "Reverie," Dickinson; "Allegro Maestro" from "Water Music," Handel.

COMES FALL: As reported here last week, radio knows no seasons. Already plans have been completed for the return of regular features, schedule changes, and special events for the new broadcast year. Here's the list so far, except for time changes to be made solely because of the shift back to standard time late in September:

AUGUST
Monday, Aug. 25—4 p. m. Tennessee Jubilee new time, ABC-WGN.
4:15 p. m. Terry and the Pirates at new time, ABC-WGN.
7:30 p. m. CBS at new time, ABC-WGN.

7:30 p. m. National Air Races, CBS.
9:30 p. m. National Air Races, CBS.
11:30 p. m. National Air Races, CBS.

RADIO ROUNDUP: France, say the magazine Broadcasting, is expected to switch from state-controlled to private operation of radio within a year. Joan Davis may have a CBS show this season. Arthur Fiddman will be on a new CBS series called "Show Business," Radio Daily says. Peggy Lee and her husband, Dave Barbour, have written a song with the jaw-tiring title, "It Takes a Long, Long Train With a Red Caboose to Carry My Blues Away." Jimmy Durante will be a Bing Crosby guest in this fall. Radio folk say that means a vice-versa later. Mark Warnow is moving his baggage to California—permanently. Bob Hope will be Dotty Lamour's guest on her Aug. 31 show. She starts work this week on her new movie, "Lulu Belle." Here is the latest date-list for the Great Artists series (WIBA Mondays at 7 p. m.): Aug. 25, Zino Francescatti, violinist; Sept. 1, Arthur Rubinstein, pianist; Sept. 8, Bidu Sayao, soprano; Sept. 15, Gladys Swarthout, mezzo-soprano; Sept. 22, Lily Pons, soprano; Sept. 29, John Charles Thomas, baritone, and Oct. 6, Jascha Heifetz, violinist. Arthur Treacher, who'll be on the Jimmy Durante show beginning Oct. 1, is visiting his mother in England. He's due back in Hollywood on Sept. 26.
