POLAND'S CLERGY

CZESTOCHOWA, Poland, Sept. 0-(AP) Poland's Roman Catholic bishops charged today the existence of "a carefully directed and hidden truggle" in Poland against the

A pastoral letter sent to all churches in this 95 per cent Catholic country assailed the Communistsupported Warsaw government for what the bishops said was severe censorship of the Catholic press and called for abolition of "baseless and unnecessary limitations on civil

The bishops, in conference at the Shrine of the Holy Virgin here, charged in their letter that Catholics were subjected to pressure "to join political parties with principles in disagreement with the holy faith." Apparently referring to the Comnunist-controlled Workers Party, which holds the top position in the Polish government, the letter said that Catholics were threatened with loss of employment if they failed to join a certain political party. This, the letter said, was "regrettable," and caused further division among the Polish people.

The bishops deplored what they called "the contemptible attitude" of pro-government publications, which they said "made fun of religious ceremonies, Christian cuetoms and usages." The letter urged Catholics not to buy such newspapers.

DRIVER ACQUITTED

Hackett was arrested in New Fairfield, last July 13. In Danbury Traffic court a reckless driving charge was nolled, but he was ound guilty of operating while under the influence and was fined $200, with a 60 days jail sentence as a second offender.
