

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:45 a. m.—W-G-N—Fire Show preview: Commissioner Corrigan, Marshall Mullaney, Chief McAulliffe, Capt. Newell, and Fireman Hero Walter Troy.
- 12:15 p. m.—W-G-N—World series, with Red Barber and Mel Allen.
- 1:55—WMAQ, WLS, WENR, WIND, WBBM—Football: Northwestern vs. U. C. L. A. Telecast on WBKB.
- 1:55—WJJD, WILL—Football: Illinois vs. Iowa.
- 2:30—W-G-N—Football: Northwestern vs. U. C. L. A. [After world series.]

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 11:30 a. m.—WAIT—Strictly Show Business: Hal Tate celebrates 10th year on air.
- 6:15 p. m.—W-G-N—Telephone Quiz. The answer is Oklahoma.
- 6:30—WMAQ—Curtain Time, with Harry Elders and Nanette Sargent in "Part Time Husband."
- 7:00—W-G-N—Twenty Questions, with Bill Slater and Ham Fisher.
- 7:00—WBBM—First Nighter, with Olan Soule and Barbara Luddy in "With an English Accent."
- 8:00—WCFL—Gang Busters: "Case of the Siegel Kidnaping."
- 8:00—W-G-N—Stop Me If You've Heard This One: Morey Amsterdam, Lew Lehr, and Cal Tinney.
- 8:30—W-G-N—Family Theater: Joan Caulfield in "The Hound of Heaven."
- 8:30—WMAQ—Judy Canova show. [New time.]

MUSIC

- 11:45 a. m.—W-G-N—Teens and Tunes, with Hank Grant. Guest: Larry Stevens.
- 8:00 p. m.—WMAQ—Your Hit Parade, with Frank Sinatra and Doris Day.
- 8:30—WBBM—Vaughn Monroe show, with Beryl Davis and Col. Stoopnagle.
- 9:00—W-G-N—Chicago Theater of the Air, with Elvita Clementi, Bruce Foote, Ruth Slater, Robert Quick, violinist, and Henry Weber, conductor. Speaker: Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.
- 9:00—WMAQ—Kay Kyser's Kollege of Musical Knowledge returns to air.
- 9:15—WIND—Symphonic Hour: Rossini's "William Tell Overture."
- 9:30—WBBM—Abe Burrows satirizes 'Tm Pan Alley.