Rare Lincoln Book Found in Store

SPRINGFIELD, III. -(U.P.)-An SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (U.B.)—An original presentation copy of the "Debates Between Lincoln and Douglas," personally autographed by Abraham Lincoln, has been found in a Springfield bookstore by King V. Hostick, collector of Lincoln letters and documents. Published in 1860 in Columbus, O., the volume is inscribed on the title page in the hand of Lincoln to R. M. Elder. to R. M. Elder.

Elder made speeches for Lincoln during the latter's presidential campaign. The book is one of 100 copies which were given to Lincoln by the publishers in payment for his supplying them with his text of the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates.

Lincoln used the books as political favors, giving them to his friends during the presidential election year.

Although many copies of the book are still in existence, the presentation sentiment, together with Lincoln's signature, makes Hostick's find one of some value, he said.
