The circus played Colt park several years, but abandoned the site as too small, favoring the Bar-bour street lot instead.

Chief Godfrey said that both the state laws and city ordinances governing outdoor performances had been strengthened since the circus

"A fire such as we had could have happened anywhere," he said. "It just happened to be our misfortune that it occurred here. We are well equipped with laws and ordinances covering circuses, and we will enforce them."

MURIEL HUBBARD SUES FOR RETURN OF GEMS

The return of personal property valued at more than $12,980, in addition to payment of two promissory notes aggregating $5,600, was sought yesterday by Mrs. Muriel McCormick Hubbard, of Middletown in a suit filed in Superior court against the estate of the late Yvonne Bacon Ross Gubert, Nor-
