

Modest Maidens

By Jay Alan ANSWERS TO Carnival

QUESTIONS

By HASKINS

A reader can get the answer to any question by writing to the Information Bureau, 112 Eye St., N. E., Washington 2, D. C. Please include three (3) cents for return postage.

Q. Which of the National Park and recreational areas is the most popular? F. F.

A. The Lake Mead area in Arizona and Nevada drew the largest number of visitors—1,342,204—during the travel year which ended Oct. 1, 1947. Close behind, in second place, was the Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D. C., which attracted 1,266,760 visitors during the year.

Q. Who made the first flight over the North Pole? A. W. M.

A. The first conquest of the North Pole by air was made by Rear Adm. (then Lt. Comdr.) Richard E. Byrd and Floyd G. Bennett. On May 9, 1926, they flew over the Pole from King's flier over the pole from King's plane, the Josephine Ford.

Q. What is the present estimated cost of rearing a child in the United States? J. L. P.

A. For a family of moderate income, the cost is estimated at more than $15,000. The family income upon which estimates are based is $2500 a year, and calculations are made to the age of 18 years.

Q. Has the new Rainbow Bridge at Niagara Falls been completed? R. W. L.

A. The construction of this bridge was stopped during the war and completed afterwards. The Department of Public Works of New York has reports indicating that the bridge has been operating since 1945. The structure is privately owned and operated by the Niagara Falls Bridge Commission.

Q. Where does the most snow fall in the United States? J. R.

A. The greatest snowfall occurred at Tamarack, Calif., during the winter of 1906-07, when 884 inches was recorded. At Giant Forest, Calif., 60 inches in one day and other great falls were: 42 inches in two days at Angora, N. Y.; 54 inches at The Dalles, Ore., in three days; 96 inches at Vanceboro, Maine, in four days.

Q. Who has the most snow fall in the United States? J. R.

A. The greatest snowfall occurred at Tamarack, Calif., during the winter of 1906-07, when 884 inches was recorded. At Giant Forest, Calif., 60 inches in one day and other great falls were: 42 inches in two days at Angora, N. Y.; 54 inches at The Dalles, Ore., in three days; 96 inches at Vanceboro, Maine, in four days.

The first accident involving a "flying auto" is reported, and the worst is feared if the Sunday driver is taking over in a third dimension.

For a book by a candidate who

SENATOR SOAPER SAYS:

Great anxiety attended the moving of the 200-inch telescope mirror to Mt. Palomar, as breaking one like that would have meant seven light years of bad luck.

Communist strikes and riots among workers in France and Italy are readily explained. After toiling so long, the boys feel they deserve an unrest.

Mounteban's sailor boy is upped by marriage to $52,43 a week. Even so, it's real dough he's after he might better sign aboard a whaler.

When hunters, who encircled an open space across which a tiger crossed, banged at it, and into another, the survivor of 27 battles in two great wars said he had never seen anything like it.

Deduct the time killed by those watching the steam shovel from the time saved by this ingenious device, and the result is an impressive minus quantity.

A southwestern fancier has a turkey now 19 years old and too tough to kill—a rare case, in which the longevity can be ascribed to longevity.

The first accident involving a "flying auto" is reported, and the worst is feared if the Sunday driver is taking over in a third dimension.

REG'LLAR FELLERS

For a book by a candidate who

I WAS JUST THINKIN', PUD—THAT'S ON ACCOUNT OF I LIKE A BROTHER—VESSIE—JUST LIKE A BROTHER!

SPEAKIN' OF BROTHERS—HERE COMES PINHEAD NOW! WHERE?

HIM! JUST LIKE A BROTHER, EH?

TAKE THAT FOR TELLIN' MOH & PUT IN TH' GOLEMISH BOWL!

YES? NO?

ROBINSON'S COOKBOOK

JOHN A. B. COOK

REG'LLAR FELLERS

REG'LLAR FELLERS