it will be several years before we can fill all the back orders."

Parker cited three reasons for the shortage. First, he said, a backlog of demand built up over the four war years when no Christmas bulbs were made; second, the many new families set-ting up homes and last, lack of imported lamps, formerly 75,000,-090 to 100,000,000 annually.

Waymack Hits Censorship on Atom Facts

CHICAGO—(U.P.)—W. W. Waymack, atomic energy commissioner, warned Wednesday against imposition of censorship restrictions on atomic matters beyond those necessary for national security.

He said the American people must know as much about their $2,500,000,000 a to mic energy plant as security permits if they are to make wise policy decisions.
Waymack spoke at a meeting of the Illinois Welfare Association.

Stresses "Right" to Know
He said "some quarters" already are questioning "the right of the people to information."

"I should not be surprised," he said, "if at some time the quesside," are shield in the count, for the
