Pharmacy Fraternity Initiates 11 Men

Dr. E. E. Snell, associate professor of bio-chemistry at the lessor of blo-chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, was guest speaker Wednesday night when Rho Chi, honorary pharmacy fraternity, met in Kennedy Manor for initiation.

Initiates were Howard Bauhs, Charles Dahl, Edward Freiham-mer. Donald Hall, Rolf Johnsen, August Lemberger, Carl Lintner, Juan Maldonado, Eugene Parrott, Oscar Peckarsky, and John

Speaking on "Vitamins and Micro-Organisms," Dr. Snell told of the discovery, isolation, and medical value of some of the important vitamins.

In this country as late as 1930 pellagra caused 7,000 deaths and 100,000 hospital cases annually, Dr. Snell said. Discoveries in the vitamin B substances, however, steadily brought the disease, un-der control, he said, to the point where today there are not enough cases for clinical study.

New Light C and O Train to Trim Schedules

ST. LOUIS, Mo. —(U.R)— A new light-weight train to be put into service by the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad will "revolu-tionize cross-country schedules," a railroad official predicted today.

Robert R. Young, board chair-man of the Chesapeake and Ohio, said the train would cut a day off schedules between New York and Texas and would cut transcontinental time in half. He added that there would be "no reduction in safety" in the faster schedules.

Young said the new train was expected to be ready to run in
