

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

By HASKIN

Q. What city in the world has the largest Jewish population?
A. New York City, with more than 2,000,000. In 1937 the American Jewish Committee estimated the world Jewish population at 15,638,000. Since then it has diminished to between 11,000,000 and 12,000,000.

Q. How many persons were killed in civilian airplane accidents last year?
A. The Civil Aeronautics Administration says that during 1946 there were 117 fatalities resulting from airplane accidents. Private flying took 1009 lives, domestic air carrier 115 and international air carrier 52.

Q. Is it an accepted fact that human children have been carried off by wolves and reared by them?
A. E. R. Yarham, writing in Frontiers, says that records of wolf-children go back to the Middle Ages and that in modern times a number of witnesses, including missionaries, have testified to their existence. However, the consensus is that further evidence is necessary before reaching definite conclusions.

Q. When was the Children's Bureau created?
A. The bill creating the Children's Bureau was signed by President Taft on April 9, 1912. It was the first governmental agency of its kind anywhere in the world. Originally a part of the Department of Labor, the bureau was transferred recently to the Federal Security Agency.

Q. Please give the name of the only woman to hold a pilot's license on the Mississippi River.
A. She is Capt. Mary Greene, president of the Greene Line Steamers, Inc., who received her pilot's license in 1904.

"I wish that correspondence course would hurry with your next lesson, I'm getting awful tired of split pea soup!"

SENATOR SOAPER SAYS:

A show of right hands in U. N. vote against warmongering fails to sway the skeptic. "Watch that left!" he counsels darkly.

Is the habit of munching laundry starch to be discouraged, a medical publicist is asked. "On the contrary," Even peace these days calls for the stiff upper lip.

Reverend again are confounding stills, and with the American genius for creating motor cars out of scrap, who knows—the old-time Stanley Steamer may once more take to the road.

Grid injuries in the season now closing suggest anew that nature get back to the drawing board, as the human knee is not only nothing to look at but a piece of bum engineering.

It appears that not one but two romances are in progress in the British royal household, a state of affairs which could easily tie up a palace phone for the entire evening.

They say Petrillo lacks any sense of public relations—but we wonder. Here and there, in the storm over a threat to close down the jukeboxes, cries are heard of "good old Jimmy!"

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

Looking at today's hand I do not think you would want to be in a slam, especially with the king of spades, wrong and West holding the ace of hearts. Nevertheless Mrs. Charlton Wallace of Cincinnati, Ohio, one of the winners of the women's national team-of-four championship, made seven on this hand, thereby winning the match for her team.

West elected to make the spade opening, which Mrs. Wallace (South) won in dummy with the queen. She then cashed the ace, king and queen of clubs, and

"This is Prof. Dumphy, who split the atom—pay attention while he shows you how to slice the ham and cheese!"
