Q. Does salt water freeze?
E. C. W.
A. Salt water does freeze, but at a temperature considerably lower than that of fresh water. Sea water freezes at about 27 degrees F.

Q. When does evening begin and end?
O. G. T.
A. Usage varies. In general, evening is the close of day—the period between sunset and bedtime. In some localities, however, evening extends from noon up to and including sunset and twilight.

Q. What is the composition of ordinary cow's milk?
L. L. W.
A. The average composition of whole milk is 3.3 per cent protein; 4 per cent fat; 5 per cent sugar; 7 per cent minerals and 87 per cent water.

Q. Was there ever a left-handed President of the United States?
R. McE.
A. Garfield was the only left-handed President of the United States. President Truman was with his right hand but he throws and does some other things with his left hand.

"And to my business associate, Spike O'Toole, I leave the territory between Fifth Ave. and Fourth Ave., bounded on the north by Jason St. and on the south by Bond St., to be developed commercially as he sees fit!"

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

I think the most optimistic group of bladders in the country are the members of the various athletic clubs. When I was a Cleveland, Henry P. Jaeger and his crowd at the Athletic Club certainly believed in bidding. And the group in Indianapolis always maintained that the more you bid, the better you have to play.

At my own club, the New York A. C., the same spirit prevails. Walter Caswell lost no time in getting into a four-spade contract on 7's hand, but he made the contract and that is what counts.

"Maybe I did bid too much," he remarked, "but the boys paid off."

The opening lead was won by Caswell (South) with the ace of hearts. A small spade was led. West played the ten and dummy's king won. A small spade
