Faise Names on Beer Taps Bring Warning

The practice of displaying false brand names on beer taps must be discontinued at once. John W. Roach, director of the state beverage and cigaret tax division, warned today.

Complaints have been received that some favernkeepers expose brand names on their beer-taps which do not represent the brands of beer being drawn, Roach said. The practice is contrary to Chapter 66 of the Wisconsin statutes and punishment by fine is provided for its violation, Roach warned.
