A. The Cremation Association of America says that there are now several states—California, Oregon and Washington and possibly one eastern state—that have laws requiring that cremated remains can be disposed of only by placing them in a cemetery, mausoleum, or crematory columbarium. A state permit is required to remove the cremated remains from one interment property to another, so the state now has a record of the permanent placement of all remains. The Cremation Association

Q. Does the shrew live on in-sects entirely or does it eat field mice also? E. I. M. A. The shrew is the most voracious of mammals and will voracious of marmals and will eat field mice although it is an insecteater. This small animal has such rapid metabolism that it starves to death in a few hours if it cannot keep eating. One variety of shrew is the smallest mammal on earth, measuring but two inches.

Q. What was the name of the mechanical man that was exhibited at the World's Fair in New York? J. W. N.
A. The mechanical man made by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company at Mansfield, Ohio, was named Elektro.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

Most experts will tell you they would rather play a slam contract against an expert player rather than a weak player. For good players have logic for every pass, bid, or double, while weak players often don't.

In today's hand, for example, a good player will make the contract against another good player, might miss against a weak one.

First a word about the bidding: East bid hearts over West's bid of one spade, and bid hearts again over three diamonds. When West bid four hearts, Easts four spade bid was not a sign-off. It indicated he knew that the contract was safe at five hearts.
