

Studio Stops Pairing Evans, Rogers

By EDITH GWYN

DALE EVANS

HOLLYWOOD—Bad news for a lot of fans is the fact that Roy Rogers and Dale Evans aren't going to be teamed together in those hoo-operas anymore. In fact, a contract for Dale is being negotiated at a different studio from where Roy works. It certainly surprises us—for these two recently were in the "top 10" in a popularity poll that was a country-wide canvass on western stars—and Dale was the first femme ever to make that list! Republic's decision to separate these two (since it also proved that their marriage didn't hurt their popularity one bit) strikes us as slightly idiotic.

Robert Mitchell will be leaving for Sweden in a few weeks—as soon as he finishes "Blood on the Moon" at R.K.O. He's going over to play the top male role in Ibsen's "A Doll's House" that David O. Selznick will produce right in its original locale. Dorothy McGuire is already on her way there to do the co-starring part.

Jane Wyman and Marnie Sachs, the record ace, have been tabling for two lately.

Bud McTaggart, former kid star, is running for city council in Culver City.
