HOLLYWOOD — If an offer being dangled before Bing Crosby at this writing doesn't lure him across the seas, nothing will. Bing was supposed to be in England this spring toiling away in a British picture, y'know — b u t he changed his mind. Now Arthur Rank, the London Filmogul who is in Hollywood, has bought the Broadway smash success, "Briga-doon" and wants Crosby to come over and star in this musical with the Scottish background. Sir Harry Lauder has already been assembled in San Francisco, with two planists — Marvin

Its story line about two studio writers who fall in love with a waitress, sounds too, too familar
