Q. In what way were bees used for this purpose during the recent war between the Chinese and Japanese. The bees were removed from their hives and microfilm messages printed on very thin paper were attached to them. When released, the bees winged back to their hives.

Q. Have the territories of the United States an electoral vote? I. M. B. A. The territories have no electoral votes. Electoral votes are restricted to the states of the Union.

Q. How many air raids did London suffer during the first World War? J. A. M. A. The Germans made a total of 103 air attacks on London in World War I and dropped bombs amounting to about 270 tons.

Q. Where did buckwheat grain originate? B. W. F. Buckwheat originally grew in Asia and has been cultivated in China for many hundreds of years. From Asia it was carried to Europe, and from Europe it was brought to the New World. Its name comes from the German word Buchweizen, meaning "beechwheat," so-called because of the resemblance of the three-sided grain or seed to the nut of the beech tree.

Q. How can scratches be removed from the windshield of a car? D. B. D. A. Fine emery and water followed by optician's rouge applied with a soft cloth may be used for removing scratches from the windshield of a car.

Q. When and where was a track laid over a frozen river and a train run across?—H. M. S. In 1852 an ice jam so completely blocked navigation on the Susquehanna that to transport the traffic across the river tracks were laid on the ice, and from Jan. 15 until Feb. 24, there passed over them from one side to the other, 10,000 tons of freight, baggage and mail in 1378 cars.

SENATOR SOAPER SAYS:

Gen. MacArthur's home state is Wisconsin because he has been registered for years in a Milwaukee hotel. And a quieter guest in the room next door it would be hard to find.

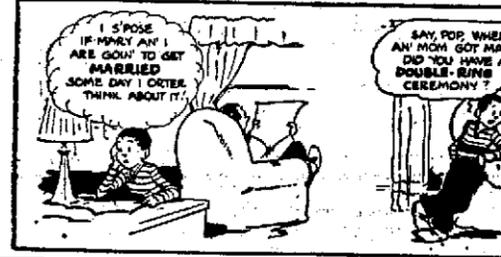

What's the use, Ike said he positively won't be a candidate. And at once a new draft cry is sounded. "That's our man! He says what he means."

The routine discharge of a couple of military classes in Russia is mistaken by the cowboy senator, Glen Taylor, for "disarmament"—a break easily covered with a loud banjo number.

What's the use of looking now for things that will turn up anyway during spring housecleaning, and be lost again quickly, in due course?

We shall look for a new maturity in the art of the Hollywood child actor, returned to school for a year. It does some-essays on this subject. No answer applied to all cases. With some ambitious husbands it proves a powder mine for his wife to have the purse strings. However, many fine rich women have married poor men they loved, and promoted their political or scientific careers, with entire dignity to both. I am still hoping my wife will hear of the death of a rich uncle.

Answer to Question No. 2

No. A Japanese psychologist, Matsumoto, in a paper in the "Journal of Change" in people's minds from hearing questions discussed. Every one changed. Even those who claimed they were "of the same opinion still" were not of the same opinion. Their opinions were either stronger or weaker.

Answer to Question No. 3

Both. Persons who handle our more difficult jobs, from skilled mechanics to college and corporation presidents, either have more brains than average or else stupidity is the best asset for success. Since the opposite is true, their children are born with intelligence above average. Also their better environment seems to raise their intelligence.

ALL OPPOSED

THE MOST important poll on socialized medicine ever taken in the United States has just come out strikingly in opposition. Early last summer Senator H. Alexander Smith, chairman of a Senate committee holding hearings on a national health policy, wrote the governors of 48 states to ask their views on two bills in Congress. One was S. 1320, the Wagner-Murray-Dingell bill providing for a national system of compulsory sickness insurance; the other was the Taft bill proposing government appropriations to furnish voluntary sickness insurance to the needy.
