Q. Who was the first bride to wear a white wedding gown?
P. E. R.
A. Anne of Brittany is said to have been the first bride to wear a white wedding gown. She married Louis XII, King of France, in 1499. In the Middle Ages brides wore red.

Q. Are members of Congress required to pay income tax on their salaries? Are campaign expenses exempt?
R. C. F.
A. Members of Congress pay the same taxes that other people pay and on the same basis. Campaign expenses in connection with the office are not deductible. However, each receives an expense allowance of $2500 per annum to assist in defraying expenses relating to, or resulting from the discharge of his official duties, for which no tax liability incurs, or accounting will be made.

Q. What is the cost of educating a cadet at the U. S. Military Academy?
L. A. N.
A. The department of the Army says that the approximate cost of educating a West Point cadet for four years is $10,000.

Q. Who invented the M1 rifle?
K. E. R.
A. M1 is the abbreviated form of "U. S. Rifle, Caliber .30, M1" which is the name by which the Garand rifle is known. It was invented by John C. Garand.

Q. Has there ever been a talking dog?
H. G.
A. There are three recorded instances of dogs "talking." Dr. W. Reid Blair of the New York Zoological Park has said that the talking abilities of dogs are more apparent to their owners than to strangers. Dogs have a larynx and vocal chords, and although they have possibilities for development, this development has been limited.

Q. When did a prohibition candidate first appear on a presidential ballot?
L. L. W.
A. In 1872, James Black of Pennsylvania appeared on the ballot as a temperance candidate, polling 5608 popular votes. In 1876, G. C. Smith appeared on the ballot as a prohibition candidate, polling 5522 votes. In every subsequent campaign there was a prohibition candidate. No prohibition candidate ever polled enough votes to win any votes in the Electoral College.

Carnival

"Notice the Chinese characters enter the picture as the artist's mood develops—he probably remembers he has to pick up his laundry!"

Let's Explore Your Mind

Answer to Question No. 1
Yes, girls not only talk earlier but more, all their lives. In an authoritative article which shows women, on the average, are undoubtedly worse drivers than men, Paul D. Green and Ralph Ritcher also shows women drivers are much more likely to be gossiping with a companion while driving, than men. These psychologists think it's a safe bet women's greater talkativeness may cause some auto accidents.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority.
THE EASTERN STATES regional mixed pair championship was won this year by Mrs. Helen Levy of Jersey City, N. J., and Max N. Schwartz of Belleville, N. J. Schwartz is a past president of the New Jersey Bridge League and is still a member of the executive committee. He was telling me they are making big preparations for the New Jersey State tournament to be held in the convention hall at Asbury Park May 14-16.

Schwartz brought out a nice point in today's hand. First of all, note that his partner, Mrs. Levy, bid a club instead of a spade. That is a preparedness bid so that if partner bids a heart over the club, the original bidder can bid a spade or a no trump.

However the play of this hand is the important thing. At first glance it looked rather simple. Declarer had to lose a spade and two hearts—but a greedy declarer might try to avoid the loss of a spade and make an

Modest Maidens

By Jay Alan

"I don't dislike him, but I like new things. I get tired of looking at the same old husband all the time."

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

We may lose every cent we put up, but it seems to me there is a chance it (ERP) will aid the battle against communism.
—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R.) of Ohio.

Virtually everything we do in connection with our foreign relations is misunderstood by some abroad. Our most generous motives are suspected.
—Secretary of State Marshall.

An act of Congress signed by the President is a bird in the hand. It's worth two dozen promises in the bush.
—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, urging Congress for speedy action on a long-range farm policy and program legislation before election.

We have arrived at that point in our economic development in this country where we must export or dry up.
—Andre Mouton, agent, Port of New Orleans.

I still believe we can get world peace. We must have it because we can't afford to destroy the whole world in another war.
—President Truman.

We are taxing our own folk to relieve these countries while these people are escaping taxation and are not contributing their wealth to this picture.
—Rep. John Taber (R.) of New York, accusing wealthy Europeans of moving their private wealth outside their own countries.

I see no possible way financially to maintain a reasonable military posture except on the foundation of universal military training.
—Secretary of State Marshall.

A third party can only promote minority rule and tend to leave the country the prey of demagogues and malcontents.
—James A. Farley, former Postmaster General.

SENATOR SOAPER SAYS:

Uranium is found in the Navajo's land, and may it do as much for him as did oil for the Osage, who turned in one Pierce-Arrow for another, not knowing you could change a flat tire.

"This can be said for a House committee chairman who stands for years in the way of a vote on key legislation: He has all four feet on the ground.

A Canadian poultry breeder reports receiving radio programs via an incubator. Fancy, looking for day-old chicks and getting Joan Davis.

"Unusually large this season, the highway chuckholes left in winters wake provide all the effects of a wartime saturation bombing, but without the rancor.

The U. S. Treasury has a 1000 eyes, as how else could it count

$27,780,000,000 in cash while it is circulating?

"Voluntary" rationing of gasoline is once more in the air, and the big trouble, as always, is that the motorist hates to become a slave to his own will power.

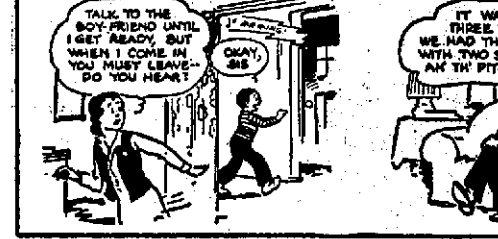

What's so tenacious about the memory of the elephant? It doesn't burn over injustices visited on its great-grandfather by elephants in the next woods.

A Philadelphia curator of mollusks puts the snail's pace at one mile in 10 years. Which, for civilization, in these confused times, would be nice going.

The national resources of apathy to a movie cutie's reasons for being for this Presidential candidate or that have scarcely been scratched.
