Answers to Questions

Q. Why do earthworms appear after a rain? J. C. F.
A. Earthworms are rained out of their burrows by the threat of suffocation. Loss of oxygen forces them to ascend to the surface.

Q. What is the real meaning of the word "maru" as applied to Japanese ships? R. H.
A. Many explanations of the origin of the word have been offered but according to one author who has gone deeply into the subject, the true meaning of "maru" has been lost in the mists of antiquity.

Q. What is the origin of the saying "Square meal"? V. C. M.
A. It occurs in English literature as early in 1611 and was used by Beaumont and Fletcher in 1616. While the exact origin of the term is not known, it is believed to be based on the thought that anything square is solid or steady.

Q. Must proof of birth be given in order to obtain Social Security benefits? R. H. P.
A. The Social Security Board requires some proof of birth. If a birth certificate is not available, one may furnish a Bible record, a baptismal certificate, a notarized statement from someone in a position to know, or records from the census.

Q. How does a kilometer compare with a mile? C. G.
A. A kilometer is equal to 3280.8 feet and is, therefore, nearly 5/8 of a mile.

Q. Was it Governor Thomas E. Dewey or Wendell L. Willkie who received the largest popular vote of any defeated Presidential candidate? A. M.
A. It was Wendell L. Willkie. In 1944, Dewey received 22,006,278 votes and in 1940 Willkie received 22,304,755 votes.

Q. Are the Great Lakes completely frozen over in the winter? C. A. C.
A. The Great Lakes do not freeze entirely during the winter. However, ice covers the lake harbors and straits for several months during the winter. Lake Superior freezes only in the shallow water along the shores. The northern reaches of Michigan are frozen but the solid ice stops well north of Milwaukee.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE Modest Maidens

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority.

BRIDGE moves in cycles. Twenty years ago my column carried nothing but auction. Looking back through the columns I find that I advocated the Bryant McCampbell pitch count, made popular at that time by Milton C. Work and R. R. Richards.

This pitch count has been used by some bridge players for the past 20 years. A few years ago Charles H. Goren incorporated it in a book he wrote, without making any claim of originality. Now it is interesting to find some local authorities claiming to be originators of something that was in use before they played bridge.

The McCampbell count is as follows:

Ace .....4 points
King .....3 points
Queen .....2 points
Jack .....1 point

Two ten-spots equal a jack. Most modern experts agree on the following count for an original bid: For one no trump you must have from 16 to 19 points, for an original bid of two no trump you must have 22 to 24 points, for an original bid of three no trump 25 to 27 points. With more than 27 points open either with a two bid or four no trump.

Note that there is a blank spot between the one and two no trump bids. When you have a count of 20 or 21, you must open with a suit bid. For example you might have a four-card heart suit, in which case you bid a heart. If your partner bids a spade you bid two no trump, which tells your partner that you have an "in-between" hand. In response to an original one no trump bid partner raises to two no trump with a count of 8 or 9, or with a count of 7 and a five-card suit. With a count of 10 to 14 raise to three no trump. A total count of 33 or 34 should produce a small slam, while a total count of 37 or 38 should produce a grand slam.

In our lesson hand next Thursday I will give you some additional information on the point count system for no trumps.

To read had a lot of misspelled words. I find the same thing among the thousands of letters readers of this column write me. In letters we can scarcely read, we find a lot of misspelled words.

Told that Truman had declared a ban on the export of war materials to Russia, the deep thinker at the far end of the bar asked "wassa matter? Is he superstitious?"

It is principle that underlies our determination to stay in Berlin, not pride, as almost any spirited American has been thrown out of better places.

A peculiar tremor in television images is reported by set-owners in Philadelphia. Still, what is more natural than a little quaking among Quakers?

We don't know that a bombing plane capable of rounding the globe would be necessary, unless we have it in mind to knock ourselves out.

Chicago Utopians envision a one-world without economic ills. As this would seem to do away with economists, they naturally will be furious.

In the east a dairyman who came out for Henry Wallace says his customers canceled their orders. If it's a question of what to do with the milk, there are, of course, the Hottentots.

Another college inaugurates a course in Russian, a language apt to bewilder in our kind of democracy, on account of the words not meaning what they mean.

Breath-taking but belated is the new bold look for men. Our diplomats a couple of years back it would have looked good.

In her mad quest for security, Russia has roped in more than one dubious ally—like a certain small neighbor of whom it is said if you have her for a friend you don't need an enemy.

YOUR OPINION—

1. ORCHESTRA LEADER SAYS, "FOUR SHAGGERS ARE POOR BECAUSE THEY HAVE AN INFERIORITY COMPLEX!"

Answer to Question No. 1
Partly true, partly false. If one has an inferiority complex, he is afraid of making a spectacle of himself if he dances awkwardly. But most persons who dance badly, have a poor sense of rhythm. A nationwide survey showed dancing with the opposite sex is one of the best ways to conquer inferiority and improve personality.

Answer to Question No. 2
It passes belief that people can still be bulldozed into thinking they gain anything by a war of conquest. If each German citizen could have sold all he got of Hitler's "victories," or the average Italian for what he got of Mussolini's conquest of Ethiopia, for 10 cents they would be a way ahead of the game. Their children will be paying war debts and losses for generations.

Answer to Question No. 3
Yes. Psychologists Alice Watson studied several thousand specimens of handwriting and found the letters that were hard

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

The President, in an election year, is pulling down an iron curtain between Congress and information of the government. We don't say that the government is overrun with spies and Communists, but even one is too many.

This generation of the daughters of career women is retrogressing into... that thing known as "The Home."

—Fannie Hurst, author.

The United States' greatest menace comes from within. I cannot see why we tolerate organizations which advocate the overthrow of our government by revolution.

—Adm. William Standley, U. S. Navy, Retired, former ambassador to Russia.

The Communist party should be promptly outlawed in America.

—Harold E. Stassen.

Political or military domination of scientists would stop this country's atomic energy progress dead in its tracks.

—David E. Lilienthal, chairman, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

If war broke out at this time the United States would be unable, militarily, to prevent Soviet Russia from taking over Europe.

—Secretary of Defense Forrestal.

Farmers must be protected against oppressive government controls and inroads against liberties and free institutions.

—Gen. Douglas MacArthur

If we are going to talk strong, we must be strong.

—Former Secretary of State Byrnes, urging revival of Selective Service.
