EDITOR DOES HIS STUFF
BUENOS AIRES, O. (U.P.)—Secretary William Guthrie advised members of the Crawford Dairy-men's assn. that they could read the minutes of the last meeting in the current issue of the Ohio Farmer. The two and a half page report, it then developed, had been condensed to four lines.

CAA Nominee
Pres. Truman's choice to succeed Theodore P. Wright as civil aeronautics administrator is Delos W. Renzel, president of a radio company.

FILLED AND GONE
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (U.P.)—A foreman at the Shelby county penal farm ordered a trusty, Julius Graham, 19-year-old Negro, to drive to the motor pool to refuel a truck. Graham hasn't been seen since he headed away in a cloud of dust with a gas-filled tank.

BARBER KEEPS BUSY
TIFFIN, O. (U.P.)—Bernard D. Bauer keeps busy with no trouble at all. He is a Tiffin barber, owns an eight-unit tourist hotel near Upper Sandusky, O., and is a musician. He conducts and arranges music for his own group, Bauer's All-Girl orchestra.

HOW TO LIVE LONG
SCRANTON, Pa. (U.P.)—Drinking is bad for the liver, dancing is hard on the heart and singing weakens the lungs says Mrs. Minnie Francione, who believes probably the reason she has lived to 100 is that she refrained from all three.

LILIES AID SCIENCE
CHICAGO (U.P.)—Cosmic ray scientists at the University of Chicago are using lily seeds in balloon fight experiments, according to Dr. Marcel Schein of the institute for nuclear studies. They hope to learn more about the reaction of cells under heavy bombardment by cosmic rays particles. Lily seeds are easy to prepare for tests, Dr. Schein said, and are easy to study.

VICTIM SUES BURGLAR
NEW YORK (U.P.)—The state supreme court has taken under advisement a suit intended to determine whether a safe-cracker is liable for civil damages. The Astma Casualty and Surety Co. brought the suit to recover $707.25 from Stanley Patrek, 33, now serving 15 to 20 years for robbing a safe insured by the company. The company said that amount of damage was done in breaking window grates and the safe.

SORE NOSE COMES HIGH
FORT DODGE, Ia. (U.P.)—Tanner S. Peterson's sore nose cost three Moorland, Ia., high school students $153.50. A district court jury awarded the damages for injuries which Tanner received while playing basketball with two other 16-year-old boys in the school gymnasium.

Not only good-looking and "kinky" — he also played a really good hot piano! . . . In case you've wondered whatever became of Nino Martini — let's about to play "Dimitti" in the film version of "Boris Goudonoff" which Fortunio Bonanova is going to produce.

Those rumors that "Blood on My Hands" might have to be abandoned (because only half finished) though only half finished because of Joan Fontaine's illness in her current delicate condition, are just rumors. Joan will be able to finish her stint, though outside of that, she'll do little but rest until her baby is born.

Nose for Clothes
If the picture had had to close down, it would have been a tough break for English actor Robert Newton, who we hear, has been doing a swell job in his first Hollywood picture — and due for a lot of audience recognition . . . The fashion editor of Pic, Bert Bachrach is doing a local glamour-guy. And nothing flashy, mind you!
A note from New York says that the visiting King Michael of Romania was a big personal hit at parties there.

Tours for Children
He's touring five states for the United Nations Emergency fund, on behalf of the starving children of Europe and Asia . . . Cary Grant and Betty Hensel (?) a surprise re-kindling at the Cafe Gala together.
