By HASKIN

O. Was there a newspaper called the Bark Shanty Times? W. H.

A. Port Sanilac, Mich., was once called Bark Shanty Point. During the middle Nineteenth Century, the community was noted for the Bark Shanty Times because it was the only daily newspaper in the state without reporters, editorial staff or printers. The editor, who was postmaster and storekeeper, placed on the counter large sheets of newsprint and a supsheets of newspiritt and a sup-ply of pencils. The customers wrote what they pleased. The Times came out daily and reached great popularity in 1856.

Q. Is it a fact that the proposal to erect the Eiffel Tower in Paris aroused a great deal of criticism and opposition by the French people? C. H. B.

A. There was a great deal of opposition to the erection of the Eiffel Tower and a number of important authors, including Dumas fills and De Maupassant, wrote in protest. However, in wrote in protest. However, in the single exposition season of 1889 the gate receipts netted six-sevenths of the cost. It is inter-esting to note that the construction of the tower was hailed by Thomas A. Edison.

Q. What is the highest casual-ty figure for any single engage-ment in World War II? J. McL.

A. The Department of the Army says that the most costly Army says that the most costly campaign in casualties to the American Army in World War II was the Ardennes campaign, from Dec. 16, 1944, to Jan. 25, 1945. There were approximately 55,420 casualties in the Battle of the Bulge on December 16, 1944. The Navy has not broken down its easualty figures by engage. its casualty figures by engage-ment but it is unlikely that this figure will be exceeded. Q. What British novelist spent

Q. What British novelist spent a year cruising around the world in a sailing vessel with Joseph Conrad? O. B. D.

A. John Galsworthy cruised around the world with Joseph Conrad. During the journey Galsworthy wrote stories, consigning them to the waves on Conrad's advice, but by the end of the cruise he had learned to write.

Answer to Question No. 1 Husband No. 2. When a man says confidentially to another, "My wife is just that way, too," he is merely telling the other husbands he understands and sympathizes with his marital trouble. But when he says, "My wife does so and so," he is speaking of her with pride and holding her up as an example. Just try listening in on husbands and see is it doesn't work out that

Answer to Question No. 2

What they believe. Many studies show the majority of firms do not "sell" management strongly enough to workers. frequently, management be-lieves it is completely "fair" with workers, but have falled to show workers fully what they show workers fully what they are doing. Consequently, workers get wrong beliefs and attitudes. Managers should remember with the late Gilbert Chesterton, "What a man believes is the most important thing about him, whether his beliefs are true or false."

Generally, if you have over 12 points you have a better bid.
In response to your partner's suit bid of one, in order to go to no trump you should have a count of 13 to 15. To jump to three no trump you should have a count of 16 to 18. For example, if your partner bids one ample, if your partner bids one club and the next hand bids a club and the next hand bids a heart and you have a count of 13 to 15 you can bld two no trump. But you also should have the opponent's suit stopped.

As I said last week, a combined count of 26 in the two hands should produce three no trump, a combined count of 33 to 34 a small slam, a combined count of 37 to 38 a grand slam.

You open one spade, the next hand passes, and your partner bids one no trump. What should you do? You have a count of four for the ace of spades, three for the king of spades, four for the ace of hearts, three for the king of diamonds and one for the jack of clubs, a total of 15. By bidding one no trump your partner has told you that he has a maximum count of 9. Therefore your combined count of 24 a maximum count of 9. Therefore your combined count of 24 does not indicate a possible game and you pass.
