Movie Mother of the Year

Film star Maureen O'Sullivan, mother of the five children wtih whom she is pictured, will be named Hollywood Mother of the Year at a luncheon which will be held in Beverly Hills, Calif. The proud father, director John Farrow, holds two of the youngsters.

Then came a sterling performance of "Eri Tu," with "Toreador" as an encore—and Warren made Escamillo a confessed braggart by his acting, in both voice and gesture. The "Faust" aria was smooth yet virile, and "Largo" al Factotum" got as near a "straight" treatment as is possible without slighting its inherent hu-mor. Warren made no special point of speed, and used none of the tricks which many baritones inject. And by this time an earlier fuzz had disappeared from his high pianissimos.

The concert ended with two English chanties—sea songs of contrasting style—which Warren recently recorded. The group also included Bridge's "Oh, That It Were So" and "Everything That I Can Spy," by Bone and Fenton. Final encores were "A Little Bit of Heaven," "Danny Boy," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Willard Sektberg was a capable accompanist and played a group of solos—an austere ver-group of solos—an austere version of Chopin's "Nocturne, Opus 9, No. 2" and a lively one of Brahms' "Rhapsody, Opus 79, No. 3." His encore was "Playera," by Granados.

SIDELIGHT: Warren almost SIDELIGHT: Warren almost Leonard Warren concert, 8 p. m. After his Saturday night concert, he was caught in a rainstorm while wearing the only dress suit he had brought on his tour. And he had to pack the garments while they were still damp.

When he reached Madison on Sunday, Warren found the trousers were so wrinkled he couldn't think of wearing them. So he asked Mrs. Robert Taylor, manager of the Union theater, to get them to a tailor - and fast. She called one, who promised to have the trousers ready by curtain time, and she left them at the Memorial Union desk for him.

Lana Stories Weren't So,' Gwynn Reports By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD-We've been so flabbergasted reading the various front-page accounts of the Lana Turner-Bob Topping wedding and reception, that we just went mute on the subject!

We were there through all the proceedings—and it's obvious that most of the stuff that went on the wires from Hollywood must have been written by someone who couldn't get past the fence or people who were deliberately dreaming up a lot of stuff they figured would make "better read-

Lana didn't faint or weep: the lovely buffet was spread with food no more lavish than at any good Hollywood party.

Personally, we found the whole affair a little dull—not enough guests to make it crowded or gay. And the event was certainly NOT star-studded, there being very
