Answer to Question No. 3

Certainly, the way things are going 'now. As we have raised the standards of living, the people with brains emough to reach those standards have almost ceased having children. Skilled laborers, doctors, lawyers, educators, engineers and business men—every skilled group except clergymen are dying out. So if things don't change we are certain to be forced to lower living standards.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE Carnival

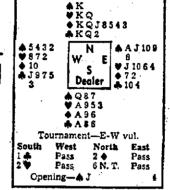

By Jay Alan

By WILLIAM E, McKENNEY America's Card Authority (Written for NEA Service.)

The mixed team-of-four event of the Eastern States regional championships had two winners. The team of Mrs. Augusta Cantor, Fred Hirsch, Mrs. Gertrude Jobes and Herman Goldberg, all of New York City, won the trophy. The children's cancer unit at Memorial Hospital in New York City also were winners because net proceeds went to aid the fight against cancer in children.

Mrs. Cantor and Mrs. Jobes are sisters. It was particularly satisfying to Hirsch and Goldberg to win because only a short time before they were leading in the finals of the Vanderbilt Cup tournament, only to lose out on the last 14 boards. In the Eastern States mixed team contest the defenders had 22½ matches out of 28 at the end of the first session, a record cent game. But the new 80 per cent game. But the new champions came back in the second session to win 21½ matches against the defenders' 15.

Today's hand was selected from the mixed team event. It is one on which the bidding varied a great deal. Most South players opened with one club At some tables North responded with only one diamond. However, I believe that North's correct restores in the diamond. rect response is two diamonds even though he does not have first-round control in two suits. He knows his partner must have

He knows his partner must have three aces to open.

Some players might consider North's jump to six no trump a plunge in the dark, others would say he misses a chance to get to seven. However, with his jump to two diamonds and then to six no trump I am sure that if South held four aces he would take the contract to seven. take the contract to seven.

East could not be criticized for not opening the ace of spades. The natural opening was the spade jack. Declarer then spread the hand for seven.
