Going Back in Show Business

"No, I'm not selling my mink and ermine to keep the wolves from the door-I'm going back in show business," says Lita Grey Chaplin, explaining a newspaper classified ad in Los Angeles offering her luxurious wraps (look at 'em) for sale. The 40-year-old one-time wife of the comedian says, "I'm just getting rid of my excess things, like furs, for light theatrical traveling." She adds, "I hope I can wow them again."

Today's artists, he declared, have contributed as much to civilization's advance as the inventors of radar, the atomic Hollywood's glossy offerings.

At that time Hughes was balking at the asking price of $9,000,000, but a reliable spy reported Howard and Flloyd Odlum as still arguing. Well, as it turns out Hughes gets his big film factory for about $8,400,000.

Someone wags that the only feller at R.K.O. that Howard will fire is the one who dreamed up the idea of making "Mourning Becomes Electra." That is the worst picture we've ever seen. All elections were unanimous.
As treasurer, Langer reported that the association's membership had risen to an all-time high of 375, an increase of 90 over the previous year.

Walter Frautschi, Ma dison businessman, urged the association to press for art space in the proposed Madison war memorial.

Prof. Wayne L. Claxton, head of the art department at Wayne unversity. Detroit, told the 250 persons at the banquet that "the public accepts changes in the field of science more readily than advances in artistic fields."

Science and art, he said, are the reading a fare mood of the imprisoned boys.
