Thanks from Youth Council

On behalf of hundreds of Madison boys and girls, the Madison Youth Council wishes to thank every adult who put in time and effort to make our second annual city-wide Clean Up-Paint Up - Fix Up campaign a success.

There is not enough space to mention individual namesthe city officials, our high school principals, teachers, mer-chants, businessmen, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, WIBA, WKOW, the newspapers, churches, organizations who welcomed our youth speakers, and our adult advisers.

Many thanks for your cooperation. You have encouraged us to take a more active part in civic affairs and have helped make our city beautiful for the Centennial.

30 Area Pastors Knoche Named Attend Seminar to Karstens Post

About 30 pastors from churches in the Madison area attended a one-day seminar on pastoral coun-ciling in the Madison YMCA

Thursday. Thursday.

The group included Lutheran, Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal, Congregational, Moravian, and Evangelical and United Brethren pastors.

The seminar was sponsored by the state mental health authority of the department of public welfare in cooperation with the Mad-ison Ministerial assn. and the state and city councils of church-

The Rev. Frederick Kuether, executive secretary of the Coun-cil for Clinical Training, New York, conducted the seminar.

Dr. Kuether presented case histories revealing how a pastor may recognize signes of mental illness as well as how he may aid in personality problems that present themselves in his parish.
