

Talent Runs in the Family

That talent runs in the family is demonstrated by Margaret and Barbara Whiting, daughters of the late songwriter Richard Whiting. Margaret is featured vocalist with Bob Crosby every Tuesday and Thursday on CBS "Club 15." "Kid sister" Barbara is star of "Junior Miss," CBS Saturday morning series.

'What Price Glory' to Go on Tour Again

By EDITH GWYNN
HOLLYWOOD — You can get ready to see a once-famous screen team coming your way as a stage team in a play that will never grow old. Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen are preparing to make a nationwide tour in a legitimate show of "What Price Glory" in which they once co-starred on the screen. They'll start their tour right in Hollywood.
Sight of the week: Jack Dempsey, with an unidentified blonde at La Rue, eating enormous plateaus of lady-fingers covered with ice cream and chocolate syrup.
Look for Gloria Grahame and director Nicholas Ray to be married about five minutes after she gets her divorce up in Las Vegas. And "it won't be long now."

Bill Doodna's SPOTLIGHT Wayne King

Madison folk who like Wayne King's particular brand of music are expected to be out in force Thursday night when his orchestra and singers give two concerts at the Parkway theater. The programs will begin at 7 and 9:30.
This is familiar territory to the waltz king, just as his slow, easy-going brand of music is familiar to the territory. He has played several engagements at the Orpheum theater, but Thursday's performances will be his first full-length concerts here. His band full-length concerts here. His band full-length concerts here.

WAYNE KING

King was born in Savannah, Ill., and tooted his way through Valparaiso university with a clarinet which his father had given him. After graduation, he got a job with Al Short's band at the Tivoli theater in Chicago, and later formed his own orchestra.
He became famous throughout the Midwest back in 1927, when he began regular broadcasts over a Chicago station. Since then, he has had many radio network shows.
King's company will include the Collegians, a quartet of men who graduated last year from Northwestern university, all as music majors. They will sing with the band, with Ken Stevens — the show's singing star, and alone. Their a cappella arrangements include one of "The Whiffenpoof Song."

RECI-TAL: Music from four operas will be on the program which Josephine Bomgardner, soprano, and her assisting artists will present at 8 p. m. Friday in Esther Villas hall. With her will appear Doran Dietz, baritone, and Siegfried Volstedt, pianist.
Miss Bomgardner-Bomgardner: "Selve." "Voi Che Le Speranze." Ross; "Nina." Pergelesi; "Donzell." Cavalli.
Miss Bomgardner: "Die Mainacht." Brahms; "Ein Schwun." Grieg; "Hat Dich die Liebe Bruhrt." Marx; "Vergeliches Standchen." Brahms.
Miss Bomgardner and Dieter: "Prolog." "Ballatella." and "Silvio a Quest' Ora." from "I Pagliacci." Leoncavallo.
Volstedt: "Volan's Farewell" and "Magic Fire." from "The Valkyries." Wagner-Volstedt.
Miss Bomgardner: "Ritornia Vincitori." Verdi.
Miss Bomgardner: "Major and Minor." Spross; "A Night has a Thousand Eyes." Hagemann; "Open Secret." Woodman; "Sons of the Robin Woman." from "Shanewis." Cadman.

RADIO: Lucille Wall, off the air since February, will resume the title role in "Portia Faces

A note from writer Charlie Beahan, still languishing at Desert Hot Springs, says that he and Craig Rice are planning a book business to publish nothing but mystery books. They'll call the firm Charnel House.
Ingrid Bergman will adopt an Irish brogue in "Under Capricorn" — a picture she'll do for Alfred Hitchcock in England this summer. A brogue with a Swedish accent, no doubt.
About Betty: Grable has been recording the new song, "What did it do, What did it do?" on the sound-stages of "Burlesque" — and everyone gathers round to listen. She's that good. And warbling in a new torchy style.
B. Davis, after those awful reviews on "Winter Meeting" refuses to discuss that picture with anyone — for any reason whatsoever!
Warner Brothers will team Wayne Morris and Robert Hutton in a picture called "The Younger Brothers." It will be made in Technicolor.
The Edgar Bergens sail for Scandinavia on June 5 from New York. Edgar will combine a little business with pleasure on their trip, because he's going to make a travelog recording of the jaunt, which he'll whip into a commercial short-subject when he returns.

Besides being Cary Grant's leading lady in "Every Girl Should Be Married," Betsy Drake is almost never out of his sight off-screen. Our bet is that Cary will convince her "every girl should be married" and that they'll tie the knot before the two of them go to England to make a picture for Alexander Korda during the summer.
Add information you can't live without: In "Miss O'Brien," the picture about a school-marm, Joan Crawford gets hit in the eye with a spit-ball.
One side of Hollywood that gets too little publicity is the "happily married and family side." Frimance, the Bud (Producers) Lightons celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary with a big party the other night, and there were Janet Gaynor and Adrian (5-to-10-years) ditto the Edgar Bergens, the Brian Aherns, in that group. From 10 to 15 years included Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers, the Adolph Menjous, the Hoagy Carmichaels. From 15 to 20 years included the Bob Montgomerys, Irene Dunne and Dr. Frank Griffin, Bebe and Ben Lyon, and over 20 were the George Murphys, the Walt Disneyes, the Jimmy Cagneys, the Harold Lloyds — just to name a FEW!
When hostilities cease in Palestine, director, Fred Zinneman will go there with a camera crew, hoping to bring back another story as potent as "The Search," which he made and which is being so widely hailed and discussed.
Lots of people think that Philadelphia's fabulous Frank Palumbo (who owns so many night-clubs, etc., and is so prodigiously generous with pals and just general acquaintances) and Kippy Valer are secretly wed. She is about to get her first real screen break in "Tribby," which Jesse Lasky will make, and Palumbo flies out here to see her, just for a few hours at a time, every two weeks or so.
