Q. What was the speed of the winning automobile in the first race at the Indianapolis Speedway? L. E. D.

A. The Speedway was originally designed for a speed of 80 miles per hour. The first race was won in 1911 at a speed of approximately 75 miles per

Q. Where is the busiest corner in Chicago? S. C. A.
A. The corner of State and Madison Sts. is the busiest corner in Chicago and according to some reports in the world, al-though this is disputed. On an average day 250,000 persons pass

Q. Did France pay any special tribute to George Washington at the time of his death? G. G. A. Two months after Washington's death elaborate memorial services in his honor were held in the Champ de Mars, and for 10 days every flag and standard in France was hung with black crepe.

Q. How long does food remain in the stomach? V. B. R.
A. Food remains in the stomach from one to six hours and sometimes longer, depend-ing upon the nature of the food and the quantity consumed. Fats remain longer than pro-

Looking at all four hands we can see the trumps are not going to break. But when the average player has eight trumps with three top swings he is apt to go ahead and hope they will break then complain of bad luck if they do not.

In Mr. Reese's example West wins the first two spade tricks and South trumps the third one. Now if South cashes the acc, king and queen of hearts, East will be able to interrupt the running of the diamond suit by trumping and the contract will

WORK FOR ALL

THE British government, it appears, was a little disturbed by The Hague gathering at which Winston Churchill issued yet another stirring appeal for a federated Europe. The presence of several Labor party officials among the delegates from more than a score of countries made than a score of countries made it clear that London is not averse to this noble purpose, but it did frown on the unofficial nature of the assembly.

There are those who will argue that the various, separate movements for a united Europe are a waste of effort which could be availed if the matter. could be avoided if the matter were left to the governments concerned. But this is not necessarily so. Perhaps governments may be induced to move only the pressures coming from these groups.

The task is great enough for many hands.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
