British Press 'Infuriated'

LONDON -(U.P.) Lana Turner has followed the example of a good many American movie stars before her — she's in trouble with learning was that she thought the British most the British press.

It happened Wednesday night, at what one British reporter described as "probably the strangest and most humiliating press conference yet held in Britain."

The other reporter present only two remained to see the blonde star who is honeymooning here with her fourth husband, the star described American re-

Hard to Catch

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express told the story this way: "Her first personal appearance resulted in a chase through the Savoy hotel corridors.

"Reporters had been invited for a conference at 6 p. m. They were told to return at 6:45. They did.

Come back in 15 minutes was the next instruction.

"Miss Turner burst through with a bright 'hello' and bustled down the corridor. Furious redown the corridor. Furious re- American movie figure to draw porters chased after her but didn't the ire of the British press. Rita

"Later there were apologizes who have been under fire for their handling of newspapermen here. to stay. She didn't say much."
What Miss Turner did say, anference said, was that she thought England was lovely. At that point, it was said. Topping intervened to say he thought the reporters had enough.

And that was that.

'Poor Little Girl"

Earlier, at a more friendly con-ference with ships news reporters when Miss Turner and Topping Henry J. (Bob) Topping—summed it up by saying that everyone concerned was "furious." the star described American reports of the lavishness of-her recent wedding as all "nonsense."
