Evangelistic Crusade Set

East Long Beach Methodist Church, at 11th St. and Freeman Ave., tomorrow will have an evangelistic crusade, led by Dr. Russell M. Brougher, Rev. Quentin P. Royer, pastor, announced. Dr. Brougher, son of Dr. J.

Whitcomb Brougher, considered one of the great pulpit orators of America, was pastor of the Temple Church of Brooklyn, N. Y., before he entered the N. Y., before he entered the evangelistic field. According to Rev. Royer, the Brooklyn church had the largest Sunday night audience in greater New York, an average attendance of Dr. Brougher will conduct the music each night, and Mrs. Brougher will play the vibraharp. Colored motion pictures of America, Egypt and Palestine, will be shown each week night.

The evangelist is scheduled to speak Sundays at 10:50 a. m. and each night at 7:30, excepting Sat-urdays, through May 31.

ICLASSROOM FOR COURTESY

Workers for VA Schooled to Meet Ex-GI's Easily

WASHINGTON, May 15. (A.P.) Workers for the Veterans Administration are getting a classroom course in

'Be pleasant," the government agency sternly ordered its 94,000 employes. "Smile!"

Noting that veterans, its chief customers, "are peculiarly tensitive to impersonal or brusque treatment," the VA sent out orders to all branch offices to start classroom training immediately for everybody.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

"First impressions, such as those made by receptionists and information clerks, are often last ing ones," the agency reminded its workers.

There was one word of caution, however, in the VA's advice to its information clerks, as "Be courteous," said the agency, choosing its words carefully—"but not too informal."

Korea Report

SEOUL, May 15. (A) The United Nations election commission will leave here by air tomorrow for Shanghai to write its report on the South Korean election of Monday.

There will be special instruction in group leadership and its service work. The classes will be under the direction of George Goold of El Monte, international vice president of the Y's Men, Walter Dickinson of Arcadia coastal region director; Walter of Huntington Park, regional lieutenant director; Walter Jackson of Monrovia, extension director of North America and Carl Davenport of San Padro, harbor district governor.

Ways Bill Aims to Curb Communist Activity Told

(Editor's note: This is the second of two stories on the anti-Communist bill, which House is expected to pass.)

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, May 15. (A.P.) This is an outline of the bill which the House is expected to pass in a bid to cripist Party to exist, but under rigid limits.

Neither the American Communist Party nor Russia is mentioned by name in the bill. But both are meant.

The language of the bill is such in spots that some of its critics think it may be more far-reaching than appears on the surface.
They say, for example, that it invades civil liberties and may even apply to labor unions.

BASIC AIMS
The whole bill is based on three ideas which the committee members say can be proved in
