MacMurray, Colbert Star in New Comedy

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD—It's Fred Mac-Murray who will go along with Claudette Colbert on that "family honeymoon". Meaning he's to be her co-star in the just-starting picture from the novel "Family Honeymoon". Fred was going to take a rest, having just finished a burch of pictures in a row a bunch of pictures in a row-but if there's one thing he can't resist—it's getting richer. And besides, this promises to be a very funny movie Jack "To-bacco Road" Kirkland married Nancy Hoadley, the Broadway actress the other day, as long predicted here.

That Hall of Art in Beverly Hills

(which staged that big movie-star exhibit) has quietly folded up. Reminds us of Howard da Silva's crack, "No wonder so many local characters are taking up painting. It gives them a chance to use their favorite tools—the brush Meeting (WEN and the knife!"

Dorothy Malone, who hasn't had a really important screen break since she was in "Night and Day" with Cary Grant, has been handed the lead opposite Joel McCrea in "South of St. Louis", formerly titled, "Distant Drums". She was one of the stars who went to that big Command Performance in England last year.

If "Easter Parade" isn't a success, it won't be Perry Come's fault, He's nutz about Irving Berlind, Parada, Property Come's fault, He's nutz about Irving Berlind, fault. He's nutz about Irving Berlin's score for it, and has been all-out plugging it on the air. He's already had Berlin, Judy Garland and Fred Astaire as his ra-land and Fred Astaire as hi dio guests.

Bing Crosby, who usually leaps all over the place without being recognized, has finally been "recognized" in a big way. The new British "Who's Who" has him listed—and even some of England's top stars haven't made that book yet! We can just see Bob Hope gnashing his fingernails right to his knuckles in envy. Right now Bing has to make up his mind whether he'll go to Eng-

Arthur Rank, or come back to Hollywood and star in "Annie Get Your Gun," with Judy Garland at Metro, where they're waving a fantastic offer at him; or to go to 20th-Century Fox for "Chicken Fundamental Property of the start of or to go to 20th-Century Fox for "Chicken Every Sunday," the "Hansel and Gretel Dance," German; "Pop! Hal Kemp memorial album into a lush 8-year spot on the Bob pearance.

One of the few male singing stylists in the band business, Ennis opened and ended his show with "Got a Date With an Angel," all wrapped up in the light, stac-cato treatment of the old Kemp orchestra. That was the only reminder he offered listeners who like to look back to the 30s. The rest of the show was strictly to day's tunes,

The band was featured on the jangly "Saber Dance," and easy-to-take "Clair de Lune." Skinnay's wife, Carmene, sang "What Is This Thing Called Love?" and "Someone to Watch Over Me" in a pleasant, straight style, then switched in a port of mistress of
