must be to make your contract. In tournament bridge you must play for the maximum number of tricks.

Sacrifice bidding plays an important part in tournament bridge. If, for example, your vulnerable opponents have bid four hearts and you feel sure they can make it, you know that they will score 120 points for tricks plus 500 points for a vulnerable game, or a total of 620 points. If you can take a 500-point sacrifice, it is a wise sacrifice in tournament bridge and will win a lot of match points for you. However, it might be

Answer to Question No. 2 2. No, from the standpoint of national efficiency, but prob-ably yes from the standpoint of retarding the present decline of national inborn learning ability, because these able men were mostly in those social and economic classes that have large families. We don't know for families. We don't know for certain, but it is a pretty safe guess, based on much side evidence, they had or will have one-half to one child more per family than if they had gone through college. If so, they are likely to transmit their fine abilities to more children.

Answer to Question No. 3 3. Yes. Beginning years ago, Dr. Eleanor, Glueck has followed
