observed here Saturday. All proceeds from the sale of the poppies will be used for child welfare and veterans rehibilitation. Plans for Poppy Day have been made by a joint committee of the two veterans organizations headed by Clarence Skinner, Ralph Pearson, and Donald L. Cowan, co-chairmen.

Cowan, co-chairmen. Because they grew "between the crosses, row on row," in World War I battle cemeteries, poppies have become the memorial flower for the war dead.

In addition to services made possible through Poppy s a l e funds, the flowers perform an-other valuable task for many disabled war veterans, the Poppy Day committee pointed out.

The flowers are made by dis-led veterans, which enables abled them to earn some money, and helps occupy long hours of convalescence and hospitalization.
