ANSWERS TO Modest Maidens

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writ-ing The Press Telegram Infor-mation Bureau, 316 Eye St., N. E., Washington 2, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for re-turn postage.

Q. Can an earthquake be felt on a large battleship at sea, if the ship is near the vicinity or off shore of the earthquake?— A. E. L.

turn postage.

A. The U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey says that any ship, including large battleships, may be shaken by earthquakes cen-tering in the immediate vicinity. Earthquakes are often thought to be the result of collision with submerged objects until the crew has had time to examine the ship and find that no damage has occurred.

Q. How many European countries have lost their royal rulers since World War I?—D. M. P.

A. Before World War I Eu-ope had 21 countries with hereditary rulers. At the end of World War II there were only 16. World War It there were only for Today only the following countries and principalities are so ruled: Belgium, Denmark, Great Britain, Greece, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Monaco, The Netherlands, Norway and Sweden.

Q. Do sunspots occur all over the sun's surface?—K. M. E.

A. They occur for the most part in two bands on either side of the equator. No sunspots have ever been noted at the poles of the sun and very few on the equator.

Q. How did Japan rank in world trade before the war?
-F. B.

A. In 1939, Japan ranked fifth in world commerce, and by 1941 was exceeded only by Great

Q. Why are teas called Pekoe and Oolong?-O. M. D.

A. These words are corruptions of local Chinese terms. Pekoe comes from pak-ho mean-ing "white hair" and refers to ing "white hair" and refers to the down on the young leaves. Oolong comes from oulong meaning "black dragon," and refers to the black leaves mixed with those of greenish yellow.

TOURNAMENT players all over the country are beginning to know Leo Reet of New York City. His work, importing commercial diamonds for industrial use, involves a good deal of traveling, and like many other businessmen, Roet likes to plan his trips according to the tournament schedule.

Roet gave me today's hand because he thought it a "peculiar" one. The bidding shown is exactly the way it occurred. It is surprising that East did not make a quick plunge to four hearts, as long as he intended to bid it anyway.
You will note that at one point as he intended to bid it anyway. You will note that at one point Roet could have been passed out at three spades. He had good reason for not liking his partner's double, so he went to East played the queen of hearts on his partner's opening lead, probably trying to confuse the issue, but Roet ruffed it, then led the queen of clubs. West made the mistake of playing "second hand low," the led the grace. The small club came and the ten-spot and his confused, Roet finessed the nine spot, forcing West to win with the ace.

West's only return at this of second hand low and won the first club trick, he could have head to ruff. Then when East got in with deuce. West ruffed with the led the third heart and again ruffed Roet down.
