THE WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL

"Key Largo" received such preview raves that it will be re-leased at the end of June — iwo months ahead of schedule. Metro is quietly pulling "Cabbages and Kings" out of the dead file as a poten-tial Judy Gar-

- Fred Astaire musical. The studio paid 50,000 for the cript a few ears ago when t was planned a tune-film or June Ally-on and Van Johnson. Agnes Moorehead gave mimic Arthur Blake a hilarious "lesson" the other night when she went into her GARLAND impression of Judith Anderson receiving visitors to her dressing room opening night of "Medea"— and no punches pulled!

That Hollywood junket to attend the first Alaskan world premiere of Ewing Scott's "Harpoon" sounds like a starlet's dream. Supposedly silver fox furs are selling there for as low as $5 per pelt - AND there are also about 10 males to every gal.

Funny thing — before Burt Lancaster changed the gory title of his new picture, "Kiss the Blood Off My Hands," to "The Unafraid", his company took a poll among movie fans. Most of the men thought the first title too repulsive — but the women, almost without exception, liked it.

Except for John Gartleld,
"Tucker's People" will have a cast of either new-comers or Hollywood unknowns, but two Two Miners Sue UMW Broadway actresses are scheduled for Coal Strike Violence to get the top femme spots. And we'd bet that one of 'em will be Faye Emerson Roosevelt — since much of the picture will be filmed in Manhattan anyway.

Peggy Cummins has the o. k. from the Fox studio to appear with Gregory Peck in "Berkeley Several" in whether the Westerner of the studies of th Square" in summer stock. We keep hearing those unhappy rumors about the Pecks and hope they're not true.

of Letters

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD — Jeanne Crain is New York-bound to join Ann Sothern and others of the cast of "Letters to Three Wives" They'll have weeks of shooting scenes in N. Y. and around Stamford, Conn., but the picture will be finished here. The key figure in this little epic (the one who writes the letter and messes up three couples) is never scen in the entire picture. She narrates it and is talked about and her voice and laughter are very important in the story. And they want a "name" actress for the role!
