Hollywood Talks Strike Prospects

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD - Everywhere you go in Hollywood these days and eves, all you hear is talk of whether or not the actors will really strike, comes the deadline, Aug. 1. There are several things at issue. Main points are their demands for a completely "new deal" in the Screen Actors Guild contract with the producers; in-dividual rights pertaining to television; a percentage for actors of the money garnered from the re-issue of old pictures in which they've appeared.

Warners have just purchased the new book, "Something's Got To Give" from Marion Hargrove, who wrote the hilarious "See Here, Private Hargrove," and the new buy is also a roaring comedy. It kids the younowhat out of radio and will hold it before the hilarious that the state of the three maintenance engineers on the floor will take a microphone to the questioned delegation and will hold it before or pass it to each member as he discount and the state of the three maintenance and three maintenance and the three maintenance and thre dio soap-operas. Warners paid $30,000 for it.

Cole Porter is raving about the new child actress, Gigi Perreau, whom he saw for the first time in a preview of "Take Three a preview of "Take Three Tenses." Says she's another Maggie O'Brien. It was Bill Hebert who works for S. Goldwyn who gave Sam the new title for "T.T." which is "Enchanted." He also gave him "The Princess and the Pirate" a while back—and others too stupefying to mention. But Bill doesn't get paid for that — he only gets practice.

Joan Caulfield

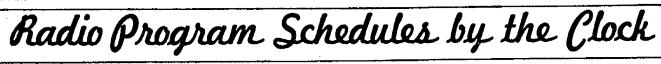

York and her 6-Voice of the Turtle." They'll CAULFIELD have you believe she gave up two films that would have netted Gregory Peck, Richard Wid-mark, an dthe rest of the "Yellow Sky company are shooting scenes using have "dou-bles"—but the using nave doubles"—but the actors go it alone. Speaking of that opus, 20th-Fox didn't resting on the slab in the forehave to remake a stitch of the wardrobe orig-inally intended for Paulette Goddard when she was replaced in this one by BAXTER Anne literally fitted right into Goddard's parits—because her entire wardrobe in the flicker consists of a pair of old blue-jeans. Here's a strange straw in the wind: George Jessel caught collaring George Raft and telling him that he'd been instructed by Darryl F. Zanuck to find a story for him. So look for George, who isn't even under contract there, to be trekking to Fox to do a from a year and a half's affliction movie that Jessel will produce.
