Mineral Point Boy Scout to Get Judge Halts Hearing Co-Op's Counsel Merit Award for Saving a Life

MINERAL POINT-Paul Fine, 18. Mineral Point Boy Scout, will receive a certificate of merit from the national court of honor of the Boy Scouts of America for saving the life of a guest at his home, it was announced Thursday night by Dr. George J. Fisher, national scout commissioner. Fine will receive the award at Mineral Point. A total of 18 Boy Scouts and two Cub Scouts who saved the lives of others also will receive awards in their home communities. Fine, according to the official scout citation, "saved R. Postl, a guest at his home, from bleeding to death last Oct. 28. His father heard screams coming from Postl's room at 3 a. m. and found his guest running around his room seeking the light switch.

"The father put on the lights and found blood spurting from the visitor's arm and the floor covered with pools of blood. The
