Boy, 17, Admits Theft of $115

A 17-year-old Madison youth admitted to police the theft early today of a billfold containing about $115 from the apartment of Phillip Wiswell, 711 Orton ct.

Wiswell told police he had left the billfold on a kitchen table Friday night while he went swim-ming with a neighbor. When he returned the billfold was gone. He said there were several peo-ple in the building at the time, but the 17-year-old boy was the

State Socialist Laborites to Enter '48 Campaign

The Wisconsin Socialist Labor party will enter the 1948 politi-cal campaign, it was revealed today in papers filed with the secretary of state's office. Mrs. Angeline Kleist, West Alwith Angeine Alest, west Al-lis, filed papers indicating that the campaign committee for the party would seek donations to finance its activities. The papers did not indicate if the party would enter a list of candidates in the race for state office.

Purpose of the party and its campaign committee, Mrs. Kleist said, is to "educate the working class to effect a peaceful change," brough the ballot, from capital-sm to socialism.'
