The bride chose for traveling a black and white check suit with white accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. They will make their home in 375 Hazelwood Avenue, Devon.

Violet Pulaski, Nurse Is Saturday Bride

The Rev. Michael Carniske officiated at the marriage of Miss Violet Mary Pulaski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Pulaski of Barn Hill road, Shelton, to Joseph Charles Misencik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Misencik of 508 Brooks street, which took place Saturday morning in St. John's Rev. church.

Joseph Misencik was the organist, and Miss Corinne Buell, the soloist, for the 10 o'clock ceremony, for which the church was decorated with white gladioli and palms.

Accorded by her father, the bride was gowned in white Skinner satin, made with a high, round neckline on a silk marquise yoke; edged in seed pearls and beads, long pointed sleeves, a bustle and train. Her three-tiered finger-tip veil of French illusion was caught to a crown of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of roses, snapdragons and baby's breath.

Miss Ada Pulaski, as maid of honor, was gowned in yellow marquisette and wore a halo of tallismen roses. Miss Alice McDonald, as maid of honor, was in pink marquisette and wore a halo of American beauty roses, while Miss Dorothy Misencik, sister of the bridegroom, as the bridesmaid, wore a rile green marquisette gown and a halo of tallismen roses. All the attendants carried flowers that matched those in their hair.

John Misencik was his brother's best man, and ushering were Peter Pulaski, brother of the bride, and Robert Korinsky. A reception followed in the American Legion hall, Stratford, where the couple's mothers assisted in receiving the bride's mother in a pink, white and Navy blue print, with a Navy blue millan straw hat, and the bridegroom's mother wore a Navy blue print gown with a Navy and white hat. Both mothers wore corsages of pink roses and baby's breath.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Canada and the mid-western states, the bride travelling in a beige gabardine suit with green cobra accessories and a white orchid corsage. On returning, they will live on Barn Hill road, Shelton.

Both are graduates of Watertown High school. The bride was graduated from St. Vincent's hospital School of Nursing and has been staff nurse at St. Vincent's hospital. Mr. Misencik is with the National Cash Register company.
