Greer Will Talk for 'Good-Will'

Film Stars Flock to Summer Theater

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD—Some thing new in "good-will gestures" is the stunt that Metro is arranging for Greer Garson to do within the next few days. Some morning this week, Greer will talk over the phone with newsmen in 22 foreign countries—at the least she'll start talking in the morning. Hmm, mmm—sounds like she were having her own private "network" which publishes Modern Screen, will bring out two new magazines in the fall. One of them is "Western Stars" and the other is a radio magazine.

More and more movie stars seem to be flocking to that El Teatro for summer - theater stuff in Santa Fe, N. M. Latest to sign up is Jeffrey Lynn, who will star in "John Loves Mary" there next week.

"Wonder if there will be any fireworks when Charles Rogers starts producing a year called 'The Scarlet Feather' which he plans in Technicolor. Frank Cruber's 'The Scarlet Feather', a totally different story hits the book-stands this week.

Director Jack Berne's six month old baby, Diane, is "playing" a part in "Every Girl Should be Married" the Cary Grant starrer.

Greater Love Hath No Woman Dept.—Veronica Lake occasionally breaks in and the Toth's tapes for him. Says they don't taste so bad if you rub a little lemon in the bowl. (!) And speaking of pipes—Keenan Wynn just suffered the silliest accident of the month. He had his pipe in his mouth and was standing close to a wall when someone called to him. As he turned quickly to answer, the pipe hit the wall, still clamped in his mouth, and broke one of his front teeth.

Dorothy Lamour is getting faves today for her dramatic performance in "Lulu Belle" which was previewed here. She goes right into a new picture called "Lucky Stiff" which starts shooting in a couple of weeks. So Dotty has evidently decided against doing the life story of singer Helen Morgan, in which she was set to star.

Janis Paige gets the femme lead in "The Younger Brothers" with Wayne Morris and Bob Hutton.

WILLIAM KAPELL

Bill Doudna's SPOTLIGHT
Horace Heidt

Whenever there's a contest of importance, you hear a lot of rumors and complaints. Take it from an eye-witness, the Horace Heidt talent search is strictly on the up-and-up and completely fair. Sunday's show was broadcast from Milwaukee. It was unusual in two ways; first, Heidt usually does his NBC show before an audience of 5,000 or so, while this time there were only about 400 spectators; second, there was a tie for the top prize—something that has never happened before.

The winners, who split the prize money and who will compete in Detroit next Sunday night, were Tommy Sheridan, pianist, and John Mangall, tenor from Flint, Mich. They judges, closely watching the "applause meter" found it difficult to detect a difference between their ratings. One said Sheridan won by a half-point, the other gave Mangall the same score. So it was a tie. And Joe Prom, Milwaukee harmon
