Answer to Question No. 1

Probably, yes. Psychologist Winifred B. Johnson found college girls who were at times high-strung and tense and other times depressed, achieved more —especially in their "ups" than those who trudged along evenly. They did far better than those who had neither ups nor downs. Apparently women who never get much excited about RLAC-570 Club.

No, it would be terribly foolish. Experts have shown hypnotism is very dangerous for anyone not a trained psychologist to monkey with. Scientists find hynotism of some value in treating nervous persons, RHA Robert Burleigh not much. I am flooded with KFOK-Down Homers letters wanting to know where to learn hynotism. Forget it!

Answer to Question No. 3

Yes. Because probably fears except fear of a sudder loud noise or of falling, when unsupported, are learned. Anything you learn you can unlearn. Professional soldiers rarely feel true fear. Men in dangerous ocor Always a cupations soon pay no attention to danger. The British people soon had little fear of bombs. I RLAC-Don Otta. Was in many bomb raids in the KFI-life Beautiful. he did not make the mistake of puiling the other two trumps in my partner's hand.

Instead he led the queen of diamonds and took the finesse, my partner winning with the king and returning the queen of clubs. I knew then that if the doctor made the mistake of trumping this, his contract trumping this, his contract would be defeated.

But he thought for a while and then calmly threw away the ace of hearts on the queen of clubs. Now if East continued with a club, declarer could trump it in dummy, lead a heart to his hand, pick up the rest of the trumps and claim the bal-ance of the tricks.
