from abroad, for no piano manufacturer in the country recalls such an instrument. The public library in Cincinnati. O., advanced the information that between 1840 and 1850 a man named Dannreuther assembled planos by hand at his home in that city.

Noted for its harplike tones, the small upright was unquestionably one of the first to be seen in the Midwest, the trend at

Actor Seeks Broadway Theater

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD — John Garfield's company, Roberts Productions, has actually offered $350,000 down payment for a Broadway theater to be sure that Garfield has his own showcase for the stage shows that he is determined to do six months out of the year—from here on out. As a year—from here on out. As a matter of fact, a deal for a legitimate theater is close to completion right now.

Mona Freeman, Paramount's cutest cutie, will be the first of the picture' colony to get a new 1949 Ford. Well, who else? She's married to Pat Nearney, who owns a Ford agency here.

Miriam Hopkins is very much in town for her role in "The Heir-ess", with Olivia de Havilland and Montgomery Clift. First time here in many years.

Spike Jones has broken all existing house-records at the Flamingo hotel in Las Vegas.

Ava Gardner will get full bill-ing treatment with Aobert Tay-lor in "The Bridge." That means star status. She's come a long way since she landed in Hollywood in 1942 with a thick southern accent and only enough money to last her a couple of months.

Jimmy Stewart, a Princeton graduate, plays a Harvard professor in "Rope."

With local theater managers moaning about bad business, the silent movie house in Hollywood which runs only old pictures is filled every night. Maybe it's true about "silence is golden—."

Told you the other day that Richard Greene was the likliest bet to play the romantic lead in "The Fan." Well, he landed the role and will be Lord Windermere in the picture. Funny— he goes back to 20th-Fox for this big role—the same studio where he was so unhappy a few months ago because he couldn't get the juicy parts—and they let him out. Now look! (It hap-pens every time!)
