Q. Why are the Republicans

Q. Why are the Republicans referred to as "Ripon" Repub-licans? G.E.W. A. The name Republican, as used by the present political party of that name, was first adopted at a local political meet-ing held at Ripon, Wisconsin, February 28, 1854.

Q. What is the real purpose of the sarape as used by the Mexi-cans? W.E.R. A. The sarape is worn by the The same as an overcoat. It is made of dark gray wool with a hole in the middle to pass over the head.

Q. Have sunspots any effect upon human beings? G.C.G. A. Dr. Charles G. Abbot of the Smithsonian Institution is not convinced that it has been proved that there is any effect of sunspots on people. Still it is not unlikely that there may be shown to be such effect, but one cannot predict what it will prove to be.

Q. In his duel with Charles Dickinson in 1506 did Andrew Jackson have the buttons on his coat moved in order to confuse his opponents? Z.F.P. A. For the duel Jackson wore large, loose garments. He was very thin, and he twisted his body within his coat so that it was almost sidewise. This really saved his, life, for Dickinson aimed at his heart. He was struck and his breastbone seered and several ribs frac-tured. Jackson, who had de seered and several rios irac-tured. Jackson, who had de-liberately let Dickinson shoot first, aimed, and although his pistol stopped at half cock he examined it again, reaimed and fired the fatal shot at Dickinson.

Q. How high above sea level is the highest natural elevation in New York City? S.L. A. The highest elevation in New York City is Todt Hill on Staten Island which is 409 feet above sea level above sea level.

Q. What are ant trees? C.N.D. A. This is the name given to several species of trees of South America, such as the barrasanta of Colombia, a small slender tree which is hollow and filled with vicious, biting ants.

McKENNEY Carnival ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY The women bridge players of Cleveland, Ohio, are probably the best organized tournament group in the country. At the Ohio State tournament they saw to it that all out of towners had an enjoyable time. Mrs. H. J. White has been active in tournament affairs in Cleveland for a number of years and is a consistent winner, She and Mrs. H. D. McKnight, also of Cleveland, won the women's pair champion-ship this year. Mrs. White recognized today's hand as an endplay situation rather than a hold-up. She al-lowed the opening lead of the king of hearts to hold, and when West continued with the queen, declarer did not make the mis-take of holding up until the take of holding up until the third round. She won the trick with the ace of hearts.

She knew that she had three spade tricks, a heart, three clubs and the acc of diamonds. A three-three break in either spades or clubs would give her the ninth trick. She could take the diamond finesse, but if it lost, West would cash the balance of the hearts. So she was careful to Save a small heart in her hand. She tried out the spade suit, and on the third spade West dis-carded a diamond. Then she tried out the club suit, and again West showed out on the third round, discarding another dia-mond, discarding another dia-mond. Now Mrs. White did not have to guess the diamond play. She simply led the small heart from her hand, and West won with the jack. West could cash the two good hearts, but then she had to lead a diamond into Mrs. White's acc-queen thus civ.
